JAPAN READY TO RESTRICT EMIGRATION Will Probably Heed Wishes of U. S. and Canada.

COUNT OKUMA IS CONCILIATORY Believes Roosevelt Wise in Advocating Restriction of Coolies.

TOKIO, Nov. 20.—While there has been no further official action in connection with the immigration of Japanese to Canada and the United States, indications point to the conclusion that the government of Japan probably is ready to admit that the arguments presented by Ambassador O'Brien require immediate attention. There is reason to expect that after the arrival of Baron Ishii, chief of the bureau of commerce of the foreign office, who was sent to America as a special commissioner to inquire into the matter, the Japanese government will undertake the self-imposed task of limiting emigration within the bounds desired by both the United States and Canada.

Canadian Minister of Labor Lemieux, who is here actively investigating the subject, has made no formal proposal, but it is understood that he has plainly indicated that a prompt curtailment of the number of emigrants is necessary if Japan is sincerely desirous of assisting her.

Jackies Give Loving Cup to Helen Gould

PRESENT TOKEN OF GRATITUDE Distinguished Company Attends Presentation at Navy Yard.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The warm feeling of the sailors of the American navy for Miss Helen Gould is to be shown today by the gift to her of a silver loving cup. Four thousand of the men attached to the Atlantic fleet contributed their money for the present, and one of their number, James McNeil, a third-class yeoman, will make the presentation speech.

The cup is made of sterling silver with a soft gray finish, and is more than two feet high. On one side is a gold mounting, bearing the inscription of dedication, and on the other side are the seal of the Navy in relief, and an etching of a new type of battleship.

The gift will be an especial token of gratitude to Miss Gould for providing the Naval Y. M. C. A. building in Brooklyn, which is regarded as the metropolitan home of every man on the Atlantic station.

A distinguished company will attend the presentation ceremony.

MISS HELEN GOULD.

A. A. MOORE NOT IN SCHMITZ CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—It has been stated in several newspapers from time to time that A. A. Moore is acting as attorney in the different cases of former Mayor Schmitz. It was specifically stated that he had appeared in the Court of Appeals on Monday morning in connection with one of these cases.

Mr. Moore desires to have it stated that he did not appear there and has absolutely no connection with those cases.

NEW LAWS TO BE SUGGESTED AS TO BANKING AFFAIRS

Judiciary Committee's Report on Extension of Time to Pay Taxes Is Favored. FOUR S. F. AMENDMENTS ARE PASSED

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—Resolutions were introduced today in both houses of the Legislature, convened in extra session, for the appointment by the Governor of a special legislative committee to investigate the banking laws of California and the banks in the State.

A thorough inquiry is to be made into the methods employed by the banks in the conduct of their business in this State, which by some of the speculators, was in part at least, held largely responsible for the present financial stringency. The committee is to formulate amendments to the present banking laws, and draw up more stringent measures for the better protection of depositors and to report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the Legislature.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

A concurrent resolution asking for the investigation of the banks and the appointment of the committee was introduced in the senate by Senator Levitt of Oakland, and in the lower house by Assemblyman Field, with an amendment by Assemblyman Stanton of Los Angeles.

The senate unanimously adopted the concurrent resolution approving four of the twenty amendments to the San Francisco charter, adopted at the recent election. The amendments increase the salaries of the San Francisco police and fire departments, authorize the payment of 5 instead of 4 per cent interest on the bond issue in San Francisco, estimated at $28,000,000, for municipal improvements, and permits the treasurer of that city to deposit public funds in the banks in the manner provided by the State law.

EXTENDING TAX PERIOD.

THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE REPORTED A SUBSTITUTE BILL EXTENDING THE TIME FOR THE PAYMENT OF TAXES SIXTY DAYS BEYOND NOVEMBER 26, INSTEAD OF NINETY DAYS IN THREE PERIODS OF THIRTY DAYS EACH AT THE DISCRETION OF THE GOVERNOR. SAN FRANCISCO DELEGATIONS IN THE TWO HOUSES OF THE LEGISLATURE AND THE DELEGATIONS

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Double Tragedy Occurs on the Streets of San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 20.—A double tragedy in broad daylight occurred this morning at the corner of A and Front streets when Mrs. Jodie Rogers was shot and killed by her husband, who then turned the weapon on himself and blew out his brains.

Rogers was a bartender and once owned a telephone saloon. He had been on a spree for about two weeks and for him. She met him almost home and he had refused to go further. She pleaded, but he remained obstinate, finally declaring that neither of them should go home again. With that he drew a re-

SHOOTS AT FOOTPADS BUT IS BEATEN DOWN

Youth Badly Beaten and Robbed in Desperate Fight With Highwaymen.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—In a desperate fight with three footpads who assailed him in a lonely part of the Richmond district last evening, Bertrand Burton, a chauffeur, received a severe wound on the head from a blow from a loaded hose in the hands of one of the culprits, and lost $40 in money and a $25 pin which was taken from his necktie.

Burton did not give up his valuables without a fight and he firmly believes that two of the footpads bear the marks of the struggle which ended in his being effectually downed.

Burton was walking along Clement street and when near the corner of Twenty-first avenue he was approached by two men, one of whom hit him with what he believes to be a loaded hose. He retained his presence of mind, however, and hit one of the robbers with his fist and then drawing his revolver, fired one shot, but thinks he missed his aim.

When his assailants had at length got the best of him they took his valuables and made off into the darkness. When the matter was reported at police headquarters this morning Captain of Detectives Kelly detailed Detectives Gorman and Percell on the case.

SEEM SURE OF SECOND SESSION

Governor Partially Agrees to Issue Second Call.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—Another extra session of the Legislature following the conclusion of the present one, was practically assured today when the two San Francisco delegations went to Governor Gillett in a body at 12 o'clock and asked him to issue another call.

"If you can assure me beyond any doubt that the work of both sessions can be consummated by Saturday night, I may call another extra session to ratify the other San Francisco charter amendments. But, I will not extend the work of the legislature beyond this week. I will not issue the call for for another session until I see that the work of this one will be finished by tomorrow or Friday."

MRS. BRADLEY TELLS OF FINAL TALK AND MURDER

Slayer of Senator Appears More Composed on Stand—Letters Are Read in Court.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—When criminal court No. 1 took its mid-day recess Mrs. Annie M. Bradley had just reached the point of relating the details of her shooting of Senator Arthur Brown of Utah. Most of the morning was devoted to identification of many letters written by Mr. Brown and Mrs. Bradley to each other. They were not read to the jury. Mrs. Bradley contradicted the testimony of Witness Kelley in many particulars.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The climax of the Bradley trial was reached today when Mrs. Bradley, testifying in her own behalf, related the particulars of her final interview with former Senator Brown in the Raleigh Hotel in this city last December and gave all details she could remember of the shooting which followed. She was prompt, as usual, in entering the courtroom, and if any one had believed that yesterday's ordeal would render her unfit to proceed with her narrative it must soon have become evident to such person that he had not taken into sufficient account the reserve power of the woman. She did not look very buoyant, but she never does. It can't be said that there was much change

"WATCH US GROW"

COIN DEPOSITORS PAID IN COIN

The following statement has been given out by the Oakland Clearing House Association:

All coin depositors in the banks are paid in coin. This is not a new rule, but is a continuance of the rule in vogue since the beginning. It is a mistaken idea that persons who deposit coin cannot withdraw the same whenever they please and in such sums as their convenience requires. Hence merchants and other business men have no need to hoard coin to meet cash demands, as checks against coin deposits are honored in coin if payee desires.

TIME FOR PAYMENT OF TOWN TAXES IS EXTENDED TO SECOND MONDAY IN JANUARY

NOTICE TO COLLECTOR THE CAUSE Bondsman Says He Must Take Only Legal Tender.

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—At a special meeting of the Town Trustees last evening it was decided to extend the time when taxes will be delinquent until the 15th of January, 1908, to the second Monday in January. It is claimed that this will give ample time for the taxpayers to recover from any temporary financial stringency as a result of the money flurry.

The action was made necessary by the fact that the Survey Company of San Francisco, which is on the bond of Tax Collector Gove, has refused to allow him to receive clearing-house certificates or certified checks or anything outside the letter of the law, which calls for cash. This stand on the part of the survey company is not considered unusual or unjust, because, according to the statement made by Town Attorney Staats, no collectors in the State are handling anything but legal tender. This statement was made in answer to the suggestion to the contrary, and the Town Attorney is believed to have spoken with authority upon the point.

CAUSES DISCUSSION.
The statement of Tax Collector Gove that there is not enough money at present in the general fund to pay current expenses until the middle of January caused some discussion as to the advisability of extending the time. But it was shown by past figures that there will be enough money coming in from those who want to get their taxes paid as soon as possible to keep things running without difficulty. Support of the taxpayers is expected in this matter and probably no trouble will be experienced.

Gove showed that an average receipt of $500 per diem would suffice and stated that the average has so far been greater than that, ranging from $3000 down to $1000, the minimum for any single day being $800, which happened on the 10th of the month before the holidays commenced.

ORDINANCE AMENDED.
To postpone the date of delinquency it was necessary to amend the present ordinance as it is the chance were to be permanent. The amendment was made to affect ordinance 1884, section 26, in which the wording was altered so as to read "the second Monday in January of the year following." Instead of "the last Monday in November."

The board will meet again on Friday night to pass finally upon the new ordinance, as required by law.

SMASH FACTORY WINDOWS.
BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—The Manassas Tanning Company of West Berkeley reported to the police this morning that five windows in their manufacturing plant on the Southern Pacific railroad had been broken by boys who threw stones while passing on the trains. Superintendent Scott of the Southern Pacific has been requested by Marshal Vallier to assist the local department in abating this nuisance.

SLAYS MAN WHO FLED WITH WIFE
Took "Peace" Money From Despoiler of Home but Pursued and Shot Him.

FRESNO, Nov. 20.—After tracking a man and his faithless wife for six months the chase extending from Seattle to Fresno, a Japanese, whose name is unknown, this morning at 10 o'clock came across the body of his home in the Trinity garden here and shot him dead. The dead man's name was Okamoto and the affair is steeped in Oriental mystery. For the man who was shot had attempted to stave off his end by sending money to his wife and children, and was, ostensibly, satisfied while all the time he was using the money furnished by Okamoto in trading and killing his neighbor. The murderer is not yet captured.

CHOKED AND ROBBED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—One of the boldest hold-ups in the annals of the present epidemic of crime was perpetrated this afternoon on Broadway while hundreds of pedestrians were passing on the street when Mrs. Abigail G. Michaels, one of the proprietors of the Florentine Hairdressing College, 227 Mercantile Place, upstairs at the corner of Broadway, was assaulted and choked until she delivered to the thief all the money she had—$5 in scrip and $4 in silver. Several burglaries occurred last night.

PIPE WEIGHING TON ROLLS ON LABORERS

Christian Andre and Flem Lapos, Portuguese laborers employed by the Reinforced Concrete Pipe Company, were passing on the sidewalk and Wood streets, two men, assisted by a small force of workmen, were rolling a large concrete pipe on the sidewalk. Andre and Lapos being stationed at the end of the pipe, and in an effort to stop it the two men were hurled to the ground with the pipe, weighing a ton, upon them. Andre's right leg was crushed by the weight and Lapos' right foot was mashed. The men were taken to the Receiving Hospital where Drs. Hamilton and Koford attended them. Andre may lose his leg.

AUTO HITS TEAMSTER, BREAKING MAN'S LEG

Howard H. Camby, a teamster, who lives at 785 Eleventh street, suffered a bad fracture of the left leg this afternoon by being struck by an automobile. Camby is employed by William H. Parish as an expressman, and was engaged in hauling mail to the Anchor Brewery, Forty-third street and Shattuck avenue, when the accident occurred.

He was pushing an empty wagon from the brewery and at the same time that the wagon started down the incline from the brewery to the Anchor, Frank R. Parish, who was driving the automobile, was struck by the wagon, and the leg of the teamster was broken. The injured man was taken to the Receiving Hospital where the leg was set by Dr. M. A. Frank.

ENGAGED FOR GYPSY PART IN TROVATORE

MISS LYDIA STURTEVANT.

Azucena Is Special Role Selected

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Miss Lydia Sturtevant, who was one of the leading singers in the Milan, Royal and other opera houses in Europe, and who has now returned to Berkeley in spite of flattering offers from European managers, will sing in a special engagement with the Milan Opera Company at the Central Theater in San Francisco on Sunday night. Miss Sturtevant will sing the role of "Azucena," the gypsy woman in "Il Trovatore," and will be the co-star with Signorini, the famous tenor.

The talented Berkeley singer is in possession of a handsome offer from the manager of the Milan Opera Company to join them on their tour of the United States, but she has refused this offer, owing to her unwillingness to leave her mother alone in Berkeley.

ISSUE WARNING AS TO PLAGUE
Lately Appointed Expert and Supervisors Tell People to Clean Premises.

The Board of Supervisors has issued the following:
In view of the fact that bubonic plague exists in certain places on the coast, the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County has deemed it wise to take measures to prevent the introduction and spread of the disease. To this end the board has appointed Dr. T. G. Howe as medical inspector of the county of Alameda.

Physicians having doubtful cases, or cases believed to be the plague, are requested to call upon Dr. Howe at the health office in Oakland (telephone Oakland 242), that he may see the cases with them, to the end and that should the case be one of plague, appropriate measures may be taken to prevent its spread.

Physicians who may be interested in the literature of plague are referred to Marston's Tropical Medicine, Jackson's Tropical Medicine, the writings of Kitasato, Netter's La Teste and standard medical works.

TO EXAMINE BODIES.
As experience in other countries has shown that from forty to fifty per cent of the cases of plague that occur are not diagnosed until after death, even by physicians familiar with the disease, registrars of vital statistics are requested not to issue burial certificates unless the death certificate has been signed by Dr. T. G. Howe, to the effect that he has examined the body.

This measure is necessary to determine whether or not plague exists in the county, so that if it does exist the proper measures may be taken to prevent the disease from spreading or getting a foothold.

CLEAN UP.
Every resident of the county is asked to pay special attention to the sanitary condition of his premises, to clean up and remove all accumulations of garbage, waste matters, manure, dirt, filth, rubbish or any other material which may serve as hiding places for breeding places or feeding places for rats.

Inasmuch as the disease is communicated almost entirely by rats and their accompanying fleas, it is necessary to kill all the rats as fast as possible. This may be done by means of poison and traps. The rats will not go to the poison traps, however, unless garbage is removed, destroyed or kept in light receptacles of metal, with metal covers; unless the food in the kitchen and pantry is kept in rat-proof retainers, unless grain, corn, fodder, etc., is maintained in such manner that rats may not get to it; and unless manure piles are removed, as rats breed in manure piles, and feed on the grain which has not been digested by the horse or other animal.

To conclude, every measure should be taken to place all premises in such condition that rats may not find hiding places, breeding places, or places to get food, and thus be compelled to go to traps or poison for sustenance and thus be destroyed.

BELIEVE CO-ED IS SNEAK THIEF

University Excited Over Petty Thefts Committed Among Women Students.

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Several thefts from women students at the University have led to the belief that a co-ed is a sneak thief. Miss Dorothy Van Orden, a student in the University, reported to the police this morning the loss of a valuable set of gray squirrel furs, which were taken yesterday afternoon from East hall. A neckscarf lined with silk was also missing.

Miss Van Orden left the furs hanging on the rack in the hallway on the second floor of East hall, near the entrance to room 26, while she was doing laboratory work. At 4 o'clock, when she returned for her wraps, they were missing. It is the first time in years that anything of the sort has happened among the students. The University authorities are very much wrought up over the affair.

GETS DOUBLE DUCKING ON LAUNCH TRIP
Carleton Wall, Acting as Host, Goes Overboard Twice in Rapid Succession.

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Carleton Wall, owner of the Carlton Hotel, got a double ducking in the cold waters of the bay Sunday while acting as host for a launch party. In trying to get the anchor aboard the boat the rope parted and Wall went overboard. He reached bottom and was hauled aboard by his friends, only to lose his balance and fall in again. He was unhurt.

The members of the launch party were Judge and Mrs. Kerrigan of San Francisco, Harry Henderton, Frank Mervin and Louis Humphreys. Red Rock was the destination.

NAME DELEGATES TO THE GREATER SAN FRANCISCO CONVENTION

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—This city will be well represented at the meeting Thursday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce building in San Francisco, where "Greater San Francisco" will be discussed. The following delegation from the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce will look after the interests of this city: Robert C. B. Ochelster, Secretary B. D. Burrows and P. G. Galvin. Henry Morse Stephens of the University will be the chief speaker of the evening.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL.
The Coroner's jury called to hold an inquest upon the body of Freeman Edwards Brandt returned a verdict last night of accidental death by drowning and suffocation.

TRANSFERS HIS LOTS TO BANK
D. Edward Collins Deeds Property to the California Bank.

D. Edward Collins, president of the California Bank, has transferred to the bank a half interest in property on the San Leandro road which he recently acquired from E. Vanderhook. As president of the Amador Marble Company he decided to the bank a lot bounded by First, Second and Market streets, and also property in the Howe tract near Mountain View Cemetery.

John Fischer, a mortgagee for $8000 on property situated on Albion street, near Telegraph avenue, the mortgage was given as security for a loan of $8000 at eight per cent interest for one year.

George S. Lackie gave a deed to the California bank for property near the corner of Erie and Divisadero streets, in Berkeley. The price is not stated.

SAYS 100,000 RATS HAVE BEEN KILLED

The Board of Health this morning issued the following summary of work done since October 1st. In the crusade against rats 114,000 doses of poison have been placed throughout the city, and Dr. Long estimates that 100,000 rats have been killed, in addition to those trapped and purchased by bounty.

Since September 1st there have been but 8 cases of plague in Oakland, while in San Francisco since August there have been 96 cases.

BURGLAR CAPTURED.
Frank Williams, the confessed burglar who was arrested in San Francisco yesterday, has been implicated in a number of room robberies in this city. He operated here with Joseph Wolf, who was arrested in Vallejo recently on a burglary charge.

The Oakland burglaries which have been fastened upon him are those of A. H. Schleuter and Mrs. Long.

WILL START REECTION OF NEW LIGHT PLANT

ALAMEDA, Nov. 20.—Sometime this month work will be started on the new building for the electric light plant. The bonds for the improvement have not yet been sold but the electricity commission has found a way to get the money. The new building will be of Mission style of architecture and will cost about $26,000. It will occupy the site of the present frame structure in which the valuable city machinery is stored.

SECRETARY SCORED BY J. GELDER

"You're an Old Woman," Cries Improver.

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Sharp words passed between W. J. Miles, secretary of the South Berkeley Improvement Club, and John Gelder, a prominent member of the south end organization, at their regular club meeting in Lincoln Hall. The dispute arose during a discussion of the consolidation question which is now before the people of this city. In the course of a short talk Gelder called the improvement club members a "bunch of knucklers" and denounced them as short-sighted for opposing the plan to consolidate with Oakland.

ACCUSATIONS MADE.
No sooner had Gelder resumed his seat than Miles took the floor and asked Gelder to state where the club had been knocking or doing any underhand work. Gelder replied by referring to a recent resolution which Miles had tried to get through the club, showing that the club had been opposed to consolidation before the earthquake.

"That is neither here nor there," said Gelder. "What we want is the opinion of the club on the consolidation question now."

"I'll tell you gentlemen what is the matter with the meetings of the South Berkeley Improvement Club. It's too much Miles. Why don't you take a tumble to yourself? Miles is a scoundrel of an old woman. Why, we're afraid to pass around the cigars in this club for fear of the censure of the ladies of South Berkeley. Why can't we be sociable?"

ALLEGES "KNOCKING."
"I have been coming here meeting after meeting and find but five or six members present. What is the reason of this? I will tell you. The property owners are disgusted with the knocking methods of this club. They are sick and tired of your secretary and his underhand games."

Miles answered Gelder with invective as bitter and taunting as that used by the ardent exponent of consolidation. "You have some cause to talk this way about any man in Berkeley," said he. "Why couldn't I be elected to the position of poundmaster in this town, after the way in which you were snuffed under in the recent trustee election. The people are sick and tired of you and your schemes of consolidation, which they hear drummed into their ears at every turn."

After a heated argument lasting the greater portion of the meeting the two members of the club left the hall. The remainder of its meeting in the hands of those who had gone there for business.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 20.—The final payment of the debt on the First Christian Church, which was dedicated last year, was made yesterday and there remains but a few extras to pay for the cost of the contracts which will be satisfied. The payment yesterday was for $5000.

PROSECUTED DAIRYMEN THREATEN TO BRING MILK FAMINE ON TOWN IF ARRESTS ARE CONTINUED

Club Women Angry; May Institute Boycott

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Residents of the college town are being alarmed by the new phase of the situation arising this morning when Town Attorney Staats, who is conducting the prosecution of the alleged offending dairymen, announced his intention to rearrest the milkmen each day "so long as they persist in their refusal to obey the provisions of the pure milk ordinance."

DAIRYMEN TO FIGHT.
The dairymen are protesting against the intention to rearrest them and are making ready for a fight to win on the question. When told of the plans of the Town Attorney to rearrest them each day they declared their intention to convert their milk into butter and allow the public to find its lactical refreshment wherever it might.

MILKMAN TALKS.
"We are not taking such steps as this," said John H. Davidson, proprietor of the San Pablo avenue dairy, when speaking of the matter this morning.

"But if the authorities deprive us of the right to carry on our business we shall have to resort to such measures as seem practicable. One thing is very certain, however, we are going to fight this new milk ordinance."

Meanwhile the women of the Twentieth Century Club have also taken a hand in the affair. Aroused at the persistence of the dairymen in violating the town ordinance they held an indignation meeting yesterday, at which it was decided to send cards to all the dairymen in the city reminding them to "discontinue such conduct." It is reported that if they continue to offend to start an agitation that will result in a boycott of the milk business.

People will be urged to adopt a condensed milk diet and goat milk from the goat farms in Hayward and other nearby places will probably be introduced into Berkeley for the nourishment of babies.

LAWYER HENEY MAKES PROMISE TO SPEAK ON CIVIC PROBLEM

ALAMEDA, Nov. 20.—Francis J. Heney will speak before the members of the Goodfellow Club of the First Christian Church some time next month. His subject is to be "Civic Righteousness." The exact date for the lecture has not been set, but the officers of the club have the promise of the prosecutor to speak and they believe that he will not fail.

DEATH OF FRANK CAIN.
BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Word has reached here of the death of Frank Cain, a well known young man of this city, in Sierra Madre, Los Angeles County, where he had gone for the benefit of his health. The decedent was 22 years of age and a native of Santa Rosa.

For six years he had been in the employ of the Sunset Telephone Company and steadily rose in his position until he was called from the Berkeley office to become a wire chief in the San Francisco department of the company.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cain and the nephew of Mrs. W. F. Grant of 1735 Addison street, from where he was called from the Berkeley office to become a wire chief in the San Francisco department of the company.

MINING STUDENTS HAVE SEMI-ANNUAL BANQUET
BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Mining students in the University of California, to the number of sixty or more gathered at Loma Park last evening in attendance at the semi-annual banquet of the mining association.

The menu and speeches were appropriate for the occasion. The toastmaster was Professor Christy, head of the Mining Department, and other faculty members and students responded to fitting toasts. The dishes served were crushed, concentrated and syandized and hence did not bring into play the digestive organs of the banqueters.

BICYCLIST COLLIDES WITH HORSE; IS HURT
ALAMEDA, Nov. 20.—Alex Webb, while riding his bicycle on Park street yesterday afternoon, was struck by a horse, ridden by a man named Bechtel. Webb was thrown to the ground and cut about the hands and face, though not seriously hurt. The bicycle was demolished.

Supplemental Legislative Sessions.

A Sacramento dispatch published in THE TRIBUNE yesterday represents that the Supervisors of San Francisco and other representative bodies of that city are in attendance at the capitol for the purpose of inducing the Governor to call supplemental sessions of the Legislature, after it finishes the business named in the original proclamation, to consider and act upon other propositions omitted in the original summons to the members of the Senate and Assembly to convene. To most citizens the suggestion of supplemental daily sessions is novel and confusing.

It is plain enough, however, when explained and understood. Under the Constitution the Governor has the right to call the Legislature together in extraordinary session whenever in his judgment an emergency arises and public necessity demands it. No time limit is placed on the notice he shall give to the members of the two houses to assemble. Nor is any limit placed by the Constitution on the number of special sessions which he may call during the interregnum between the dates when the Legislature is required to meet in regular session. Thus, after a special session has been called for action on specially stated subjects and the latter are disposed of, he may immediately issue a summons to the Legislature to reconvene to act the day after adjournment on some other special subject, and repeat the same at pleasure from day to day to dispose of other public propositions which he may deem urgent and, therefore, necessary. But in these supplementary sessions no other proposition than what he names in the call shall be considered. There is, consequently, no loophole in these supplementary sessions for the Legislature meeting in special session whereby its purpose can be abused by the introduction of general business.

The object of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors and other representative citizens of that municipality in visiting the Governor is to persuade him, now that the Legislature is in session for special purposes, that an emergency exists for the ratification of the sixteen other amendments to the San Francisco charter which were approved by popular vote at the recent municipal election. Unless an opportunity is given now to the State Legislature to ratify these amendments, they must be held over until the Legislature meets a year hence in regular session and the benefits which San Francisco expects to derive from them must be deferred until then. It stands to reason that inasmuch as San Francisco has stamped its approval on these charter amendments and that city is alone interested in them, there can be no good reason why legislative ratification should be postponed a year when it can be given to it now with practically no material expense to the State. By calling daily supplementary sessions defining the subject for each day's special consideration by the Legislature the Governor will have absolute control of the situation and be able to prevent any disposition which may be shown to extend the legislative sittings by dilatory tactics.

According to a Tacoma dispatch the Standard Oil Company is playing its old game of freeze out in Washington State, in order to shut out rivalry, just as it has done in every State where it has established itself. The present effort to perpetuate its monopoly in Washington is directed against a California organization, namely, the Union Oil Company, which has secured a firm footing in the Santa Barbara, Ventura and Los Angeles oil fields against the Standard's wishes. Thus far wherever these two corporations have clashed, the Union has won out. The fight in Washington will be watched with interest, not only by consumers in general in that State but by the agents of the Federal government also. If the Standard resorts to its old tactics in order to establish a monopoly in Washington, the Federal government is sure to take cognizance of violations of the anti-trust laws and the laws against the restraint of trade and hale "the system" once more into court.

Secretary of War Taft's cancellation of his engagements to visit Berlin, Paris, the Isle of Wight and Windsor Castle, in order to meet and be entertained by the French, German and British rulers, relieves him of the possibility of getting committed to international entanglements which might prove later to be embarrassing to the United States government. It will be remembered that considerable uneasiness was reported to have been created in diplomatic and administrative circles in Washington when his intentions to accept the invitations of some of the European rulers to special conferences was announced. The sudden change of Taft's program is probably due to a suggestion by the President that he had better cut out the royal visits and hurry home.

The value of Oakland of the small rental of $75,000 to be derived from the Western Pacific railroad for the use for fifty years of the tract of land lying under the waters of the bay between the western ordinary low tide line of 1852 and the ship channel, with a frontage of 1000 feet, is that it fixes the right of the city to the property for all time under the act of 1852, as the State trustee, and makes the property, with its improvements built during the fifty years of the life of the lease, restorable to the city at the lease's expiration, and clinches the municipality's control over the remainder of the water front as confirmed by the recent decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

An abuse of the philanthropy of N. O. Nelson, a St. Louis capitalist, who established a health camp for consumptives at Indio, in the Colorado desert, through neglect on the part of the patients to correct conditions that had been pronounced unsatisfactory, he has decided to withdraw his support from the enterprise. The camp has been supported by Nelson for a period of five years. Its abandonment by him is unfortunate, for it is said to have been greatly beneficial to the afflicted who sought relief there. Hundreds of patients are said to have received relief and wholly recovered their health at the camp since it was founded.

The Standard Oil kings are represented by a Spokane dispatch to have invested $15,000,000 in Washington and Idaho timber lands covering hundreds of square miles. The latest purchase is said to be 8,500,000 feet of timber from the forestry department. If the latter report is true, the department has undoubtedly created a vast monopoly over which it has no control except that of directing how the timber on the forest reserve shall be cut.

Now that the Western Pacific Railroad's terminal question has been satisfactorily settled we may look for great activity henceforth in that quarter in putting the property in order for the uses of commerce.

Divinity and the Dollar Mark.

While the clergy are finding much fault with the omission of the legend "In God We Trust" from the new eagles and double eagles issued from the United States mint, we fancy no clergyman will refuse to accept the objectionable coin in payment of salary. The legend itself is a matter of sentiment, and its appropriateness as a monetary device depends upon the viewpoint. When Christ was asked about Caesar's head upon a coin he said, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." Money-changing is not a devotional rite, and money itself is not emblematic of religion or any theologic concept. Rather is it emblematic of Mammon and the sordid activities which constitute his worship. If, as the Bible says, gold is the root of all evil, it is not sanctified by decorating it with the label "In God We Trust." The demand for gold coin is indicative of a lack of trust in either man or the deity, and it is difficult to discern the efficacy of a religious motto which does not add to the value of the coin, elevate the character of the transactions which call for its use, or increase trust in either human or divine agencies. If we only have "In God We Trust" impressed on our hearts we can do without it on our dollars. Otherwise we had better do our praying in the market place, and give the dollar mark a place in the Decalogue.

"RAFFLES" IS WELL STAGED

Play in Which Noted Thief is Hero, Wins Audience at the Macdonough.

A large sized audience witnessed an excellent performance of "Raffles" with S. Miller Kent in the title role at the Macdonough Theater last night. Mr. Kent's popular stories have made the public familiar with the mysterious robberies of the amateur cracksmen who baffled all detection and stirred society. The strange crime forms a splendid subject for a vivid drama, and Mr. Kent has made an individual character of his hero.

"Raffles," the play, is frankly a detective story, told on the stage in speech and action. It has a central figure, beside whom "the penman" was only a commonplace forger who affected a respectable life in respectable surroundings. The character, in a man of the world, a sportsman, a bit of a philosopher, even a sentimentalist, as well as an uncommonly clever thief, and Mr. Kent blends these sides of the character into a plausible, highly interesting and stage history beside any mimic creation of recent years.

Mr. Kent is given excellent support in the Bunnys of Mr. William J. Garwood, and the Gwendolyns of Mrs. Jane Fearnley. The whole cast did well in the roles assigned them.

"Raffles" will hold forth at the Macdonough until Thursday night, when it will give way to Fritz Schenz, who will commence an engagement of three performances including a Saturday matinee in her great comic opera success, "Mlle. Modiste."

The League of the Cross was organized eleven years ago in San Francisco by the late Archbishop Montgomery, and at present numbers two thousand members. The organization was stronger two years ago, but the earthquake and the departure of the ranks of the military authorities, Archbishop Montgomery had in mind in establishing the organization to have all the members take the pledge of total abstinence. This custom has been faithfully kept.

MISSIONARIES TELL OF NEEDS IN INDIA

The annual convention of the local Christian and Missionary Alliance had its first meeting yesterday afternoon in the Swedish Mission Church on "One Thousand Twelfth" streets. A good representation from surrounding towns greeted the Rev. W. H. Daniels of Los Angeles, who gave the opening address, and others who followed. Mr. Daniels also spoke on Palestine this morning, and Mr. Meyer, missionary from India, on "One Thousand Twelfth" streets. "India's Great Need" was the theme of the address. Mr. L. F. Rutherford, now on furlough, timely remarks are also being presented by Rev. G. N. Eldridge of Pasadena, Rev. N. J. Witmer of Denair, and others, in a deep spirit of earnestness and prayer promises to be the best and most important ever held. Services are held at 10:30 a. m., 2 and 7:30 p. m., closing Friday night, and Col. S. D. Dargie, the warden, is the guest.

FINED FOR NOT PAYING FOR HIS AUTO RIDE

Charles Hathaway, a real estate man, was fined $10, with the alternative of serving twenty days in the city prison by Police Judge Samuels this morning, on a charge of refusing to pay automobile hire, preferred by R. Cunnison, a chauffeur. Hathaway was arrested by Policeman Fifteenth night and Broadway. He claimed that Cunnison had agreed to take him out for a ride if he would provide a "good time," but the chauffeur denied having made any such agreement and demanded his money.

A slight fire occurred at the Piedmont Hotel last night at 11 o'clock. The fire was extinguished by the fire department, but the damage done had exceeded $25,000.

MAYOR RAPS COUNCILMEN

Declares They Should be Careful in Criticisms of City Officials.

"I have noticed at the meetings of the City Council that when one member criticizes any department of the city government that other members get up and do the same thing, although in reality they do not know what they are talking about. These criticisms get out and are often misinterpreted by the people. I think that the Councilmen should be a little more careful with their criticisms."

These were the words of Mayor Mott this morning at the meeting of the Board of Public Works, when the matter of placing fire hydrants at Halsey and Hopkins streets, Stevens and Hopkins streets and Eighteenth avenue and East Twelfth street, as authorized by the Council, were up for consideration.

Last Monday night at the meeting of the Council, Councilman Harold Verner asserted that the hydrants at Halsey and Hopkins streets, Stevens and Hopkins streets and Eighteenth avenue and East Twelfth street, as authorized by the Council, were up for consideration.

Councilman Burns was present at the meeting today and Mott stated to him that he believed the Councilmen should not be so free with their criticisms unless based on facts. The hydrants were ordered erected.

DECLARES DE KOVEN CLUB NOT DEFUNCT

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—With the idea of correcting the notion that the De Koven Club, the popular singing organization in the college town, has become defunct, the organization of the new Glee Club, the following signed statement has been issued by President Baxter:

"With the formation of the new Glee Club the erroneous idea has gone forth that the De Koven Club has been disbanded. The organization of the new Glee Club of the university."

"It happens that the men who in the beginning worked for the new Glee Club are men of the De Koven Club and are at the same time members of the new Glee Club. The De Koven Club has no direct connection with the university and does not limit its membership to those doing work in college and will still continue as an independent organization."

FRIENDS ARE SEEKING EPHIRIAM ROBINSON

BERKELEY, Nov. 20.—Ephiriam Robinson, whose home is at 1625 Grant street, has been missing since yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. On leaving for Oakland he stated he had a mission to buy real estate, though it is known he had very little money with him. Robinson weighs 240 pounds and is six feet and four inches in height, and is aged 50 years.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS.

Edward Johnson, a laborer, who rooms at Ruedy's Hotel on Webster and Seventh streets, was found in an unconscious condition near the hotel at an early hour this morning. He was hurried to the Receiving Hospital, where medical attendance was given him. Johnson had a cut on his scalp for which he was bleeding and it is thought that while on his way home his legs failed him and he fell in a heap on the sidewalk.

MORMON ELDER WIELDS GAVEL

Calls Trans-Mississippi Congress to Order at Muskogee, Oklahoma.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 20.—Today's session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress was called to order by John Henry Smith of Salt Lake City, one of the leaders of the Mormon church. A number of resolutions were introduced and sent to the committee on resolutions, with comment, as is the custom of the congress.

Among the resolutions introduced were: Recommending a standard for New Mexico, by Governor Price of that territory. Advising the national congress to issue $20,000 in treasury notes, the same to be expended by the government in post roads. A resolution for the deepening of Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, by Governor Frear of Hawaii.

Want Foraker to Succeed Roosevelt

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—Senator Foraker late today was formally endorsed for re-election to the senate and for the Republican nomination for President at the meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio League of Republican clubs. About eighty-five members were present from all parts of the State.

Justice of the Peace Gary this morning united in matrimony Raymond C. Bailing and Josephine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailing, of Los Angeles. The bride said after the ceremony that this was her third marriage. She is 26 years old and her husband is 34. She is a pretty little woman and knows the value of dress.

CARRIED MONEY IN A TOWEL.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 20.—A middle-aged woman entered the Bank of Montreal yesterday saying she had come from Chicago in order to deposit $400 in gold and American one dollar bills, which she had in a towel, feeling that the money would be safer in the Bank of Montreal.

The money, she says, was the life time savings of her grandmother and herself.

SHE FAINTS AT PRISON GATE

Sweetheart of Convict Pembroke Breaks Down at Her Last Farewell.

Another climax was added to the life drama of Percy Pembroke, the boy burglar, when he said farewell last night to his sweetheart, Grace Eaton, at the prison gates of San Quentin penitentiary. Pembroke was taken to the penitentiary yesterday by Sheriff Barnett and Deputy Sheriff George Bolson and with them was Grace Eaton, who said she would stay with the convicted robber to the last.

When Pembroke was on trial for the murder of James Cook, the Penitentiary warden, who was beaten to death with a piece of lead pipe on the lone San Leandro road two years ago last July, Miss Eaton was a constant attendant and shed her sympathy throughout the two long-drawn-out trials.

Pembroke today began a ten-year sentence at San Quentin for robbing Edward Stanley, an East Oakland barber.

GIRL FAINTS When the party came to the San Quentin gates Miss Eaton broke down. When an attempt was made to take her away she fell in a faint. Pembroke took the girl in his arms and willingly went within the big gates.

Pembroke, as soon as he saw the warden, asked to be given the position of brakeman on the work train which is cutting away a hill on the penitentiary grounds. But according to the rules of the prison he will first have to take his turn in the jail mill. Pembroke at the time he was arrested was a student brakeman on the Southern Pacific.

Shirley Barnett is glad that this gang of youths is thoroughly broken up. At the time of the Cook murder the only chieftain of the gang was a series of footprints which led to a creek about a hundred yards from where the brutal crime was committed. Barnett inquired and ascertained the had "quit" and he and his men found their clothes wet and covered with mud. The footprints of the arrests were made through additional evidence was soon forthcoming to result in conviction.

FIGHTS COMMERCIAL SPIRIT IN FOOTBALL

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—Andrew Carnegie has started out to eliminate the commercial spirit from the game of football, and as a first move will bring the Lehigh University team to Pittsburgh to play the Carnegie "Technical" school on Thanksgiving Day. He will offer the attraction to the people of Pittsburgh absolutely free.

It is said that this will cut deep into the receipts of the W. U. V. Pennsylvania State College game for Pittsburgh that day. The Carnegie school does not in any way conclude today. The Government seem to care for that, but it is interesting to see the game as if big money is to be made out of it.

WOUNDED MAN DISAPPEARS

A. Fortio, a storekeeper of Ashland, a town near Ashland, informed Sheriff Barnett this morning of a mysterious occurrence he asks to have investigated. Fortio says that a stranger drove up to his store and asked to be treated for a number of wounds on his face and head. The storekeeper did what he could for the stranger. He washed the blood from his face and dressed the cuts.

Shortly after this Fortio saw him found the horse and buggy near his store. The man whose name he had dressed was missing but seated in the rig was a dog with the license number 5881 upon his collar. It has been ascertained that the dog is the property of F. Davis of 1781 Twenty-third avenue. The police as well as the county officials are investigating.

AGED MAN IS HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Thomas Baker, an aged man, was committed for the action of the Superior Court by Police Judge Samuels this morning on a charge of assault upon Pearl Taylor, a nine-year-old girl, whose home is at 755 Jackson street. Baker was arrested on September 21st by Detective Kyle, and for a time after he was placed in the city prison his actions were peculiar that the police believed he was insane. Close questioning of late, however, has convinced the detectives that he was, in fact, sane, and it was determined to bring him to trial at once. Detective Kyle says that he has evidence to show that Baker has committed similar offenses against a number of other children in the neighborhood.

MRS. JAN KUBELIK MAKES JAN WEAR NECKTIES AND COLLARS OF HER OWN CHOOSING

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Jan Kubelik believes that all musicians, as soon as they can earn enough money to support a wife as she has been accustomed at home, should marry. Mrs. Kubelik, who was present, nodded. Jan's idea is that an artist needs a woman to look after him and see that he doesn't catch cold or become careless in his dress.

The violinist arrived at the Auditorium hotel with his manager and the rest of his retinue, including an East Indian valet, who looked frightened. There was no reason why the Hindoo should have been frightened, but that was the way he looked. He carried an armful of tin cylinders containing Jan's music, and perhaps he was afraid he'd lose one of them.

It's not so easy to learn from Mrs. Kubelik—or the countess, as they call her, for she was Countess Marianna von Czaky Snell before she saw Jan—just what kind of a chap her husband is. She can talk fast enough in Bohemian and German, but her English is limited, and she admitted it was difficult for her to follow certain interrogatories that are suggested to the American mind when interviewing great violinists. Herr Karl Junkerman, European manager for Kubelik, helped out as interpreter.

HER FIRST TIME.

"It is the first time she ever has come to Chicago," said Kubelik, looking admiringly at his wife. "She is with me to see that I do not—what you call it—catch cold. She will see that I do not put on the wrong cravats."

This opened up a splendid opportunity for a comment or two on the advantage of having a woman around.

"It is true," Kubelik agreed. "All artists should marry soon. It is a great help. All violinists should marry when they can afford. She stays back of the scenes while I play. It is much inspiration."

Mrs. Kubelik has blue black eyes of great depth and reddish hair. She has a rosy, cheery face—a motherly face, especially when she glances at her boyish husband. She is 27. She wore a red skirt and a cream colored blouse with a blue collar and a silk tie. She had a few small gold bracelets on her arm, such as might have been worn by a school girl—no other jewelry.

"You have gained much weight since you were married," observed Karl Junkerman, who felt as if he should say something. Jan smiled.

CAREFUL OF HUSBAND'S HEALTH. "Is it true that you are careful of your husband's health and specially of his hands," Mrs. Kubelik was asked. Karl translated and she replied:

"No more than every woman is careful of the health of the man she loves."

"Does he carry a muff?"

This was an unfortunate question. Jan looked distressed. Karl seemed impatient as he translated. Mrs. Kubelik became animated in her native Bohemian. "The muff story was all wrong," Karl said. "It never happened."

"I wear my hands in my fur coat sleeves," she demonstrated. "Never any muff. Reedeeculous."

"But we have many muffs, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen," Mrs. Kubelik said in her broken English. "The people, they think he needs muffs for his hands. I keep the muffs."

She laughed. Good humor was restored. Then she said, in response to more foolish questions: "He weel no use ze brushes miltaire. I haf geve him them but he weel not use them. He all the time take my hair brush."

Jan, you know, has long black hair.

CRAVATS SELECTED BY WIFE. The Hindoo came in all of a flutter at this juncture with a bunch of cravats. Mrs. Kubelik selected one and took the others away from him impatiently, with a remark in Hindustani.

"When I married Jan," she said, "he wear hess ties not to correspond with hess clothes. He wear the small, low collar. I stop that."

Sure enough, Kubelik, over by the window, had on a dark green cravat that matched the modest business suit he wore, and his high collar was uncomfortable enough for a German recruiting ser-gent. Kubelik looked at Karl and laughed.

Mrs. Kubelik plays the violin also. Her husband made a small circle with his forefinger and his thumb.

"She plays that much," he said, and smiled fondly.

The countess met Jan at a concert and it was a case of love at first sight. She taught him to play tennis and he took her shooting on his estate near Prague, and it was found they had many interests in common besides their mutual love for music.

PRINCESS PUTS BAN ON WOMEN RIDING ASTRIDE

The practice of English women riding astride has received a severe check by the announcement that the Princess Royal had condemned it. Lady Castlerough has been a prominent exponent of this method of horseback riding.

The Unreasonable Man

If a woman tells a man she has a headache he thinks, with that old familiar, though maddening masculine calm over feminine miseries: "It's quite natural. All women have headaches."

If he has a headache it isn't at all natural. He thinks the world should cease its revolution just because a man has a pain in his forehead.

It isn't natural for men to have aches or discomforts of any kind. A husband thinks it's "quite natural" for a woman to sit up night after night with a restless teething baby.

If she is a little bit irritable at breakfast he is full of resentment at her "temper."

But if anything disturbs his sleep, even at 7 o'clock in the morning, it's a very different story.

It's natural for a woman to be kept awake half the night by a fretful baby. But it's altogether unheard of and preposterous that a man should be roused at 7 o'clock in the morning by a neighbor's barking dog.

When fall cleaning and household removals take place lordly man goes off for a week's fishing.

It's "natural" for women to take draughts, cornflakes, capsaicins, cold, scummy meals served on a tray, trunk, and all the dust, confusion, bustle and misery of a house upheaved from cellar to garret.

It's natural for a wife to like being roused at 5 o'clock in the morning by the sweeps, to slip on the stairs over a pile of cold, sloppy water to enjoy having all the carpets up and sleeping in a dark, dismal, bare-floored room smelling of soft soap, says Home Chat.

Woman's First "No" Does Not Mean, Always, That She Means Just That

Three are plenty of happy "no" places which have begun with "no" and ended with "yes." It frequently happens that the woman who refuses the first time consents willingly upon the second or third. Nor is the reason for this far to seek.

The woman who answers with a negative often does so believing that if her suitor really means what he says he will not accept dismissal without making an effort to reverse the decision.

The astute lover, when declined as a husband, begs humbly for friendship and proceeds to make himself necessary to his lady-love's comfort and happiness. He studies her tastes and humors her whims, is always on hand when needed, yet never in the way. In short, he plays that part of "cavalier servant" so adroitly that some day when he betakes himself to Japan or Paris his lady-love wakes up to the knowledge that he has become indispensable to her, a part of her life, which, withdrawn, leaves a sense of lack, a void.

Most fortresses will capitulate if the siege be long enough and well conducted, and the rule holds good in love as well as in war.

What Dreams Mean

Mending—If you dream that you are mending, it presages misfortune and trouble.

Ghost—This is a very unlucky dream, indicating affliction and grief.

Eyebrows—To dream of thick eyebrows is a sign of friends; thin, ill-will and vexation; black, good luck.

Elephant—To dream of an elephant foretells slighted love.

Moving—If you dream that you are removing from one house or situation to another, it is an indication that you have enemies near you who wish to rob you of some article.

Almonds—To dream that you are eating almonds foretells disappointments. If you see them, it prognosticates that you will be placed in some temptation, which you must do all in your power to resist.

ELDERLY WOMEN BECOMING MORE TOLERANT

Perhaps it is the fault of us older women that the young people are so careful of our feelings. It must be that we have ourselves put so much distance between us and them. There are some of us who are too eager to tell how well behaved we were when we were young, and home too much to say about the slovenly ways young people have of standing and sitting, and of their slangy ways of speaking, for us to meet them often on a comfortable footing. We older women have less criticism for the young, and have too much to say about formerly, I think, I fancy that today our attitude is one easier to get on with. I don't believe I hear so much about girls being "giddy" as I used to when I was a girl. So perhaps by the time Gertrude is an old woman the young people of her day won't be as afraid of saying something she will disapprove of as she is still. If she is one of those of us who do not take everything for granted she will find the way back to her girlhood a long one.—An Elderly Woman in Harper's Bazaar

Man, Poor Worm, Being Crushed Under

WOMAN'S HIGH HEEL

Slowly but surely and remorselessly is man being crushed under the iron heel—that is to say, the high heel—of woman. She has boldly invaded his "sphere," but she would deny him the poor privilege of engaging in pursuits once regarded as belonging to the feminine field. The difficulty of obtaining female servants is well nigh universal, judging by complaints that come from all sections.

SHE HIRED A MAN.

A Pittsburg woman, who had difficulty in keeping women servants resorted to the expedient of employing a man as a sort of maid-of-all-work. She was desirous that she should solve the servant problem, so vexatious in many homes, when she lighter with the experiment and felt her own sex. The servant girls' union had his new kitchen man arrested as a suspicious character, and he was arraigned before a Dogberry.

"What have you got to say for yourself?" asked the magistrate.

"It's outrageous," declared Chester. "I am an honest workman, and the only reason that I am arrested is because of the servant girls' union. They think that men have no right whatever, and have been hounding me ever since they discovered where I was working."

CURIOUS MAGISTRATE.

"Well, I guess I'll give you some other place to work in," remarked the magistrate. "You'd better go to the workhouse for 30 days, and may be they'll teach you there how to do other things besides kitchen work."

So he was sent up for 30 days over the earnest protest of the woman who had employed him, and now she is with-

BEWARE OF THE SECRET MARRIAGE

When two people become engaged or marry one another sub rosa the experiment usually turns out badly. If a man comes to a girl and says, "I love you and want to marry you, but it must be all kept quiet," there is something wrong somewhere. "I could not love thee, dear, so well, loved I not honor more," is a sentiment girls should bear in mind if a man asks them to become engaged without announcing the fact. A clandestine courtship or secret marriage must be accompanied by deceit, subterfuge and untruth. And these things do not lay the foundations of happiness. No circumstances or conditions can possibly exist to justify a secret engagement or marriage.

True love creates courage.

out a servant. If all the facts in the case are as related the committing magistrate deserves a term of a few years in the foolish house.

A half day in bed occasionally is excellent medicine for the business woman. Novel reading in moderation is not to be despised as a rest remedy, while sound, refreshing slumber at night is nature's method of nerve repair. Nine hours' sleep every night is a sound principle to go upon, and the mentally active woman who "takes a lot out of herself" requires at least that amount. The man or woman who sleeps enough will do better work and keep younger and healthier for it. Sleep is the best and cheapest medicine, and it is within the reach of everybody. We require as much sleep as we can procure. We may work at high pressure if we sleep enough, but if we overwork and under-sleep irritability, insomnia and neurasthenia are almost certainly in store.

One of the prime causes of ill health among men and women who have to work with their brains is neglect of sleep. The woman who curtails her sleep begins to worry.

The busy woman who curls and rests enough will do good work and yet keep young and vigorous, ready to enjoy every day, every moment of her life, and use it to the best advantage. The power to be quiet, the virtue of repose, is worth cultivating in this age of neurotic women.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

The Oakland Club held its Thanksgiving luncheon today and the event was one of the most enjoyable of early holiday affairs. The decorations were red and green and the addresses were mainly holiday wishes and greetings. Mrs. John L. Swift, president of the National Council of Women, was the complimented guest of the afternoon.

The musical program included vocal solos by Mrs. Clinton Dodge with Miss Mary Murphy as accompanist.

Mrs. Richard Craft was presiding hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Bunnell, Mrs. H. C. Capwell, Mrs. E. W. Campbell, Mrs. S. N. Cerini, Mrs. F. R. Chadwick, Mrs. E. Chambers, Mrs. C. S. Chamberlain, Mrs. Vincent Choupeck, Mrs. E. S. Cole, Miss Lily Cole, Mrs. John Conant, Mrs. L. P. Crane, Mrs. Isa Crawford, Mrs. E. J. Crowell, Mrs. F. J. Cumberson, Mrs. A. R. Dabney, Mrs. G. B. Daniels, Mrs. J. L. Darrow, Mrs. B. N. de Leon, Mrs. A. A. Denison, Miss Denison, Mrs. R. P. Dey and Mrs. Fred Dorsatz.

INFORMAL DINNER.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Lacey will entertain this evening at an informal dinner to be given at their home in Thirty-fourth street, for Captain Ferdinand Westdahl, U. S. A., and Mrs. Westdahl, who have recently returned from Manila. Covers will be laid for Captain Westdahl, Mrs. Westdahl, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Strobidge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chamberlain, Dr. and Mrs. Lacey.

GOING SOUTH.

Mrs. Robert Augustus Bray will leave tomorrow evening for Santa Barbara to remain over the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Bray have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Butters recently at Alta Vista, having sold their own home in Piedmont. Miss Marie and Miss Marguerite Butters are at present in Stockton, where they have been visiting Miss Peters and Miss Sue Nichol, but are expected home tomorrow.

HUGHES CLUB.

The Hughes Club will give the first concert, tenth series, under the auspices of the Ugly Club at the First Unitarian Church, corner of Fourteenth and Castro streets, on Friday evening, November 22. The concert promises to be of unusual interest, as several new members of the club will be heard in solo work. In addition Miss Estelle Franklin-Grey, violinist, (Continued on next page.)

HUSBANDS MAKE YOUR HOME A CABINET ROOM IS ADVICE OF NOTED BRITISH STATESMAN

Lord Balfour said: "If I was making up a plan of consequence I should like first to consult with a sensible woman." A woman often will see what's right and often do it before her husband has finished his deliberations. Make your home a cabinet room, where all the affairs of the household and of business come under comparison and review. Tell your wife how much money you have and no honorable woman will want to spend more than can be afforded.

While a man owes his prosperity to his wife's wise administration of household affairs, it also is true that many a man's financial straits can be traced to the wife's love of vulgar display, social rivalry, or thoughtless extravagance, or perhaps incompetent management.

When the husband of Victoria Colonna was offered the crown of Naples as an inducement to join the league against his sovereign, Charles V, she prevailed upon him to spurn the offer. Suppose that, dazzled by the glitter of royalty, she had coaxed him to make her a queen, would he have refused the bribe? He might, but he would have been one man in a million.

OLD WOMEN WORK TO SAVE THEIR HOMES

The condition at Deerfield, Mass., is most interesting to women who would like to see the household arts revived. It is needless to say that a great amount of money is not made by these fireweed industries, but women of 70 years of age are known to be working in that part of the country to raise mortgage money to be loaned to the young. It is all very well for the young to go to the cities to earn a living, but the old must stay at home, and their families have always lived, dearer than their lives.

WOMAN TELLS HOW SHE AROSE FROM COFFIN AND LAUGHED AT FRIGHTENED VICTIM OF MAD PRANK

DENVER, Nov. 20.—Miss Louise Trembl, who, for a practical joke, posed in a coffin as dead and as an alleged result Edward L. Pierce killed Edward F. Osburn, tells her own story of the incident as follows:

GIRL'S STATEMENT. "Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bohmer were friends of mine. Mr. Bohmer was the manager for Mr. Kelly's undertaking parlors, and he and his wife had rooms in the back of the store. I went occasionally to visit them until Mrs. Bohmer went East for her health. Mrs. Bohmer was always there but one time she was away. I knew W. H. Coleman and Mr. Osburn and Mr. Pierce. Mr. Osburn, as far as I know, seemed a nice man."

"One day when I was calling Mr. Pierce came in and some of the men suggested that we play a joke on him. They dared me to get into a casket and pretend to be dead and scare Mr. Pierce. It was all in fun."

"I jumped into one of those caskets made like a couch with a padded brocade lining and a hinged cover. It was much too short for me, but I lay down and they covered me with a sheet and tucked it in around my head, and we all laughed. I was not undressed, but was clothed just as I came in from the street.

HER EYES SHUT. "Mr. Pierce came in and I lay with my eyes shut while the men told him I was a corpse. After a minute or two I opened my eyes and rolled them about to scare him and then in a minute he saw it was all a joke and I jumped up and laughed."

"When I went home I told my mother she knew all about it and she told me I ought not to do such a thing. She said, 'Suppose Mr. Pierce had had heart disease. The shock might have killed him.' But I never thought of anything only having a little fun."

"The papers say that it was because of this joke that Mr. Pierce shot Mr. Osburn, but I want to correct this. We played the joke on him several weeks before the shooting. He was a little bit angry at first."

"They also say that we were drinking and intimate that I was in the habit of drinking and carousing with the men there. This is not true. My people are German and we do not think it is anything to drink a glass of beer. The Bohmers are German, too, and on the day I jumped into the coffin we had a can of beer and I drank some with the rest."

'Nothing Can Be Kept Secret in a Little City Like This'

'Write to Us but Don't Come Home,' Is Burden of Letter to Outcast Girl.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—"Nothing can be kept secret in a little city like this."

This was the principal reason given by the family of Miss Anna Evers, 22 years old, for declining to help her willie she was imprisoned in the Harrison street annex, Sheboygan, Wisconsin. Is the little city in which secrets cannot be buried. The refusal of aid came in the form of a letter which Miss Evers showed to Judge Newcomer in the Harrison street court. She then begged the court to be merciful and after reading the letter Judge Newcomer promised to parole her. The case was one of the most pathetic ever brought to the attention of a magistrate sitting in that tribunal of tears.

HELD FOR INTOXICATION.

Miss Evers was arrested for being intoxicated. She was about to leave a State street hotel at the time. She told the detectives she had been in the hotel with a man she did not know. When arrested before Judge Newcomer the young woman said that she had come to Chicago from her home in Sheboygan two years ago. Judge Newcomer told her that he would give her time to write to her parents and learn if they would help her. He then continued the case.

LETTER FROM HOME.

When Miss Evers appeared again Judge Newcomer asked her if she had heard from her parents. The young woman sobbed and help up a letter, saying:

"Yes, your honor, here is the letter and my folks have cast me off. Won't you be merciful and give me a chance to do right? I can never go home again, so I will have to stay here and go to work."

"I wrote to my mother," the prisoner continued, "but I do not think that she ever saw my letter. I have a stepister and a stepfather and they are the only ones that saw the letter. I believe. My mother has to go out every day and work and I think my stepister replied to my letter without letting my mother see the letter. I know that she would help me if she knew that I was in trouble."

TEXT OF THE LETTER.

The letter which Miss Evers handed the court and which she said was written by Catherine Winkler, the stepister, 15 years old, was in part as follows:

"Miss Evers: Aren't you ashamed of yourself to ask mother's permission to come home after telling us that you were under arrest? Well, you ought to be. Anna, in God's name stay where you are and not disgrace us before the entire city by coming home, as you know nothing can be kept secret in such a little city as this."

"We suspected something of the sort when you sent that other letter which was headed police headquarters. Please let us know what it is that you have done and the wrong wrought, the punishment of which you must bear alone, as all others must. Pray tell us why your husband doesn't help you? If he were a gentleman he would do so. Please answer the question I ask you. Regards from mother. Yours truly,

"MISS CATHERINE WINKLER."

BUNCH OF POSTSCRIPTS.

"P. S.—Why don't you bear his name as all married folks do instead of your maiden name? It seems strange to us."

"P. S.—If father ever found this out he would not allow you even to enter the yard. So stay by all means. Please bear this in mind."

"P. S.—You can always write to us, but not come, because you must bear your own punishment."

Judge Newcomer read the letter and Miss Evers hid her face in her handkerchief, sobbing. She told the court that she had never been married, but said that shortly after coming to Chicago, when asked to return home by her mother, she had written that she was married.

"It seems as if you can expect no help from your home," Municipal Judge Newcomer said. "I believe you realize the mistake you have made and I think you ought to be paroled to the care of somebody who would be willing to look after you."

Makes Proper Paste for the Photographers

A young woman of long experience in mounting photographs asserts that her own home-made mullage is better than any of the prepared pastes sold for that purpose. Get an ounce of gum arabic crystals and dissolve in boiling water. It should be of the consistency of thin cream, thin enough to pour easily. When cold it is ready for use.

SCHOOL BOARD FAVORS RUGBY

Wants English Game to Take Place of "Intercollegiate" in Student Contests.

The students of the high school came in for a double investigation at last night's meeting of the board of education; the first about the suppression of the American game of football and the other regarding the report that they frequent near-by saloons during the noon hour.

E. E. Crandall, in giving his views on the football question, thought that since the universities have practically substituted Rugby for the old game the high school ought to do likewise. He said the sound, though rather late in the season, ought to take some action, so that if nothing can be accomplished this year to be ready for the next football season. The matter was referred to the committee on rules and regulation.

STUDENTS FREQUENT SALOONS.

L. B. Stevenson, in speaking on the subject of the students visiting saloons at the noon recess, said he had noticed such a statement in the papers and wanted to have the board ascertain the truthfulness of the assertion. He stated that those attending schools are under the jurisdiction of their teachers and principals from the moment they leave school up to the time they arrive at their homes.

Superintendent McClymonds was instructed by Chairman Reddington to investigate the charge and make a report to the board at the next meeting.

LOSE IN WALL STREET, TWO KILL THEMSELVES

NEW YORK Nov. 20.—Losses in Wall street caused Charles O. Kahler to commit suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor in his expense and near his office at 150 Broadway.

Kahler, who is 56 years old, was a well-known chiropractor. He had many rich patrons and made a great deal of money. When financially ruined lately by Wall street investments he took to drink. Yesterday morning he took a cafe proprietor and asked for 50 cents. With the money he bought whisky, after drinking which he ended his life.

William H. Lawson, confidential man for the real estate firm of Stephen Tyns & Co., committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself in the head on account of losses in speculation.

BIG STOCKADE FOR PRISONERS

Los Angeles Police Solve Problem by Caring for Hundreds of Alleged Crooks.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—The city jail is constantly packed with suspected highwaymen and crooks of all descriptions, and the municipality is about to build an immense stockade in the riverbed for the overflow prisoners. A hundred arrests a day are made, and there would be many more if they could be cared for. The proposed corral will cover four acres, and the hobos, yegmen and riffraff of all kinds gathered up by the police will be made to construct it, under strong guard.

Chief of Police Kern says there may be a thousand men at a time confined in the place before the winter is over. The authorities are puzzled in dealing with the desperadoes. Car after car has been held up and trainmen and passengers robbed. Today it was decided to have veteran patrolmen armed with sawed-off shotguns, guard all trolley terminals.

The Los Angeles Railway Company has arranged to take to arm all conductors.

ARMANNEUS TO DUCE SAYS HE WAS DUKE

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Miss Mary Robinson in the Clerkenwell Police Court yesterday continued her testimony in the Druce suit, involving the claim to the Portland estates.

The witness detailed her association in the capacity of amanuensis to the late T. C. Druce, who is said to have been the fifth Duke of Portland. According to Miss Robinson, Charles Dickens informed her in 1870 that T. C. Druce was the Duke of Portland and she was under the impression that the subject of the latter was much annoyed.

The witness, however, added that in 1871 Druce told her he was the Duke of Portland; that he used the name of Druce because he had been twice married; that he had children by both wives; had married below his own station in life, and there were family reasons for his retention of the name of Druce.

RIDES 30 MILES WITH ANKLE NEARLY SEVERED

SAN JOSE, Nov. 20.—Ray Lundy is at his home on the Berryessa road in a critical condition, with one ankle nearly severed. Last Friday, while working at his mine, thirty miles from San Luis Obispo, he accidentally made the cut with an axe and springing on his horse he rode thirty miles to that town over the mountains, reaching there in an exhausted condition. Friends came with him on the train to his home here.

CAPTURED AFTER TWO YEARS OF FREEDOM

Ben Templeton, alias Kelly, who escaped from the county hospital while under sentence in the city prison for petty larceny in 1919, was captured on Broadway yesterday afternoon by Detective McSorley. Templeton made his "get-away" while he was undergoing medical treatment for a diseased foot. Some time ago the police heard that he was dead, and his capture yesterday came as a distinct surprise to the members of the department. Templeton has an unfinished term of eight months to serve.

BIG WAREHOUSE RAZED BY FIRE

Tramps Set Fire to Structure and It Is Consumed by Flames.

STOCKTON, Nov. 20.—One of the largest warehouses along the Santa Fe railroad sidings in this county was destroyed by fire at Stockton yesterday morning. It was owned by J. A. Coley, and contained hay, wheat, barley and corn owned by the farmers in that vicinity. Four Santa Fe flatcars loaded with hay were consumed. The flames had gained such headway when the alarm was given that it was impossible to check them or save the cars.

While an investigation has failed to positively determine the origin of the fire, it is believed that tramps accidentally set the fire. Many of them have been hanging around of late and sleeping under the building. The loss is estimated at about $20,000, with partial insurance on the building. The heaviest loss is A. Coley, with the Santa Fe second.

BREAKS WORLD RECORD ON ROLLER SKATES

Frank Bignami last night broke the world's record on roller skates over a fully surveyed five-mile course at Idora Park. This fast Oakland boy made a record a few weeks ago in San Francisco of 14 minutes 53 seconds. Last night he made the distance in 14 minutes 12 1/2 seconds. This beats all previous records.

Stoutenberg of San Francisco, Arnold and Peterson of Oakland paced the race. The time-keepers were Joe Arnelm and Frank Kepka. Mackay Sutherland was track manager and attended the time with E. Bidwell of Oakland. Manager Filling and Floor Manager Newcome are delighted at the remarkable performance of the Idora boy.

SCHOOL MONEY TRANSFERRED

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Education was held last night in the city council chamber and reports from the various standing committees were read. President Charles H. Reddington was in the chair.

E. E. Cranford, chairman of the classification committee, reported that Mrs. W. E. Larkin of the Piedmont School was transferred to the Franklin School to take the place of Mary E. Leslie, deceased. To the vacancy created in the Piedmont School, Miss Lorena Daly, No. 20 on the preferred list, was assigned.

CONTRACT LET.

In the report of the committee on school houses and sites, E. E. Cranford, chairman, reported that the contract for the plastering of the Emerson School building, that granite curbing and gutters have been installed in front of the Emerson School building and that granite curbing be placed on entire frontage and cement walk laid entire width of the sidewalk on the east side of Shattuck avenue in front of the Washington School property.

The report of the committee, with the resolution of the finance committee that the surplus money—$888.60—of the school fund running from the fiscal year of 1904-1905 to the present time, be transferred to the school fund of the present fiscal year, were favorably acted on.

Excessive Drinking

Excessive or continued use of alcoholic beverages always results in a diseased condition of the nervous system.

The drinking man is often heard to say, "I can stop of my own free will and when I wish," but the next fellow is now devoid of the power to act at the proper time and in the right way—it's too late, the craving has secured a firm hold and because of the diseased nervous system he has not the ability for sustained effort. The result we all know.

Drunkenness is no longer considered a crime; eminent scientists and physicians have agreed that it is a disease and must be treated as such.

The home treatment that has been used for a number of years, and is highly successful, is Urine. It is sold under a positive guarantee that if it does not effect a cure your money will be refunded.

Urine is in two forms. When desiring to give secretly, purchase Urine No. 1, and if the patient voluntarily takes the treatment, Urine No. 2 should be given. The guarantee is the same in either case. Urine costs but $1.00 per box. Mailed in plain sealed wrapper on receipt of price. Write for free treatise on "Drunkness" mailed in sealed envelope by the Urine Co., Washington, D. C. Sold by leading druggists everywhere and in this city by Owl Drug Co.

PLAYLET MAKES HIT AT BELL

Old Burglar Story is Retold in New Way—Other Numbers Good.

Richard J. Jose sang some of the old songs at the Bell Theater last night and he won new friends. There is probably no one who can sing the "old songs" as well as Jose and as often as he comes to Oakland crowded houses will be out to greet him.

"Sweetheart, I Love You," was Jose's first song last night, and after that he very generously answered to three songs, singing "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," "Too Late," and "When You Know the Girl You Love, Loves You," all of them old, but all brought in new popularity by the singer. Jose is to sing at all evening performance at the Bell this week and next week he is to sing at all matinees.

There are several other excellent acts on the Bell's program this week, one of the best of these being a sketch, "Out of the Night." It is a playlet of great heart interest, the old burglar story told in a new way. Harold M. Shaw appears in the role of burglar. He will be remembered as an old member of Joe Jefferson's company. He is assisted by Adin Wilson and Miss Lida Coe, a charming little actress, who asks the bad burglar to be a good man in a most convincing way.

Another feature act is that furnished by the Finto Boni Brothers, European comedians. They render Italian grand opera selections.

Miss Jessie May Lloyd, a dainty soprano, assisted by seven boys gives a very pleasing singing and dancing act that will prove a great matinee attraction.

Mead and Mamie Wertz offer a flying trapeze act that is sufficiently thrilling to satisfy all and at the same time there is enough originality about it to make the act unusually attractive.

George Lavenor, comedian, has many new jokes that keeps the audience continually laughing.

At the afternoon performance the Whitesides give a clever sketch entitled "Nonsense."

Two reels of motion pictures, both comic, add to the performance.

RAISINS AND PRUNES SCARCE HERE, HE SAYS

To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE:—I have been in California but a few months traveling for pleasure and have visited most of the larger cities in this State and I notice that fruit and confectionery stores fail to exhibit or sell two of the most important products of this State, viz., raisins and prunes. It is strange that these articles are not offered for sale by such stores as named, showing an inclination to advance two of the wealthiest of fruits. I went to five different fruit stands or stores and I could not purchase a raisin or a prune, likewise in several confectionery stores. Back East, California raisins and prunes are prominently exhibited, thereby encouraging persons to buy the same.

Why not here in California, where the fruits are grown and prepared? It's funny these articles are not given encouragement here. People would consume more if they were exhibited where they could be seen. Would it not be a good idea for fruit stores to sell them loose at five and ten cents a bag and confectioners to have them on sale in nicely arranged boxes of one and two pounds? I am sure twice the quantity as now sold would follow.

BREAKS POUND LOCK AND LIBERATES DOGS

RICHMOND, Nov. 20.—Richmond officers are anxiously looking for the man who broke the lock on the city's pound and liberated the big bunch of dogs awaiting execution. The act was perpetrated Saturday night.

Health Officer H. N. Barney, who went East a couple of weeks ago with the body of his wife for burial in the cemetery at their old home near Kansas City returned home last evening. He reports cold weather in the middle States and he encountered much snow in crossing the mountains on the homeward trip.

Dr. W. N. Mitchell, the Martins dentist, has decided to take up his residence in Richmond. Dr. Mitchell has long and property interests here and at the present time is erecting a splendid home on the east side of town. He will have offices in the new building on Third street now being constructed by Contractor T. A. City Clerk H. H. Turley and President of the Board of Trustees E. J. Garmond returned home Sunday evening from Pasadena, where they were in attendance at the meeting of the League of California Municipalities. They report a profitable session and a large attendance.

WILL ENFORCE SPITTING LAW

Police Chief Says All Offenders Will in Future be Arrested.

To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE: Is there an ordinance prohibiting spitting in street cars, trains, public places, etc., now in effect? If there is why is it not enforced? The Key Route, Southern Pacific and street cars are simply filthy in this respect.

The writer, who has just returned from the East, notes that spitting on sidewalks and cars, etc., is not tolerated there, and offenders are fined in some cities as high as $500. In some cities signs are displayed mentioning the fine and imprisonment for violating this ordinance. The board of health will kindly take notice.

Yours truly,
FOR CLEANLINESS.

Chief of Police Wilson said he has issued special instructions to the patrolmen stationed along Broadway to enforce the anti-spitting ordinance. A number of complaints have reached headquarters of late about the condition of the sidewalks along the city's main thoroughfare. It is stated that at night men congregate in front of cigar stands and other stores on Broadway and smoke and chew tobacco and expectorate on the sidewalk without regard for the law. Chief Wilson says in the future he will not permit men to loiter along Broadway, and the patrolmen have been instructed to order everyone to move along who are found loafing along the thoroughfare at night.

In regard to some complaints which have been received about expectorating in the street cars Chief Wilson says it is difficult for the police to regulate this unless the employees of the street railway company report the offender. The policemen are not required to go up on the cars to make an inspection, and unless some complaint is made to them passengers who violate the ordinance cannot be apprehended.

Overworked Women

The Suffering and Pain Endured By Many Working Women is Almost Beyond Belief.

THERE are thousands of American women whose duties call them out in all winds and weathers, many of whom sit with wet feet or stand all day, thus weakening and undermining their health. Women, however, for the most part, spend their lives at home, and these women are willing and ambitious that their homes shall be kept neat and pretty, their children well-dressed and tidy, and do their own cooking, sweeping and dusting, and often washing, ironing and sewing for the entire family. Both of these classes call for our sympathy.

Truly the work of such a woman is "never done," and is it any wonder that she breaks down at the end of a few years, the back begins to ache, there is a displacement, inflammation or ulceration of certain organs, and the struggle to continue her duties are pitiful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Made from native roots and herbs, is the exact medicine a woman needs whose strength is overtaxed. It keeps the feminine system in a strong and healthy condition.

Mrs. Sadie Abbott, of Jeannette, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I suffered severely with pain every month, and also a pain in my left side. My doctor prescribed for me but did me no good; a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I wrote you in regard to my condition. I followed your advice and am a perfectly well woman. The pains have all disappeared, and I cannot recommend your medicine too highly."

Mrs. Lena Nagel, of 117 Morgan St., Buffalo, N.Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I was completely worn out and on the verge of nervous prostration. My back ached all the time. I had dreadful periods of pain, was subject to fits of crying and extreme nervousness, and was always weak and tired. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of feminine illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience, Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND, made from Native Roots and Herbs, complies with all conditions of the new Pure Food and Drugs Law.

NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE COMING IN BIG BUNCHES

CANDIDATES MAKE BIG GAINS

1000 Vote Offer Ends on Saturday Night.

The ballots for 1000 votes are what the candidates want, and they are certainly getting them, as is shown by the many new subscribers secured by them each day.

The offer of 1000 votes for a new subscriber ends on Saturday night, and the candidates who expect to win must get busy if they do not want to be disappointed.

The 1000 votes are given for new subscribers who sign a contract agreeing to take THE TRIBUNE for three months. It is not necessary to pay in advance to secure the 1000 votes. If the subscription is paid in advance the 1000 votes are issued for the new subscription as well as votes for the advance payment.

EASY TO GET
Since the suspension of a local afternoon paper it is easy for the candidates to secure new subscriptions to THE TRIBUNE. One candidate secured twenty-three subscriptions yesterday morning, showing that an energetic canvass will give you many thousands of votes to add to your chances of winning a valuable prize.

ONLY THREE DAYS.
This offer of 1000 votes for a new subscription ends on Saturday night, and the candidate who neglects this opportunity of securing votes will be almost certain to regret it. If you have not already added many votes to your list you should get busy at once.

ENDORSES MISS REEK.
The following letter is self-explanatory and should carry much weight with those who have not already given their help to some candidate.

Mr. Frank S. Adams, Contest Manager, OAKLAND TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal.
My dear Mr. Adams:

Referring to the contest for the piano prize offered by the management of THE TRIBUNE to the young lady receiving the largest number of votes, I desire to state in the interest of Miss Reek that she is a hard-working and ambitious young woman attempting to complete her musical education and is worthy of the support of all those subscribers to your paper who are not laboring in the interest of some other candidate.

Miss Reek is a communicant of the Episcopal Church in good standing and serves occasionally as chorister in the church of the Advent East Oakland and has requested me to add this testimonial to others which she has secured.

Yours very truly,
JEROME F. TRIVETT,
Rector Church of the Advent,
East Oakland.

MANNER OF VOTING.
A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of THE TRIBUNE until the end of the contest. This coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE, will count as one vote for the contestant named therein.

There is another and better way of securing votes and that is on subscriptions. Votes will be given on all paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows:
Three months, $1.95 100 extra votes
Six months, $3.90 300 extra votes
One year, $7.80 1000 extra votes
Two years, $15.60 3000 extra votes
Three years, $23.40 5000 extra votes
Three hundred votes are also issued on a classified advertisement. A coupon book which contains coupons worth $2.50, but sells for only $2.

CLASSIFIED AD COUPONS.
An innovation in voting contests is the issuing of votes on classified advertisements. A coupon book containing coupons to the value of $2.50 is sold for $2. This is a saving of 20 cents on each dollar, and will prove a great investment for those who advertise. Classified advertisements are such as "Help Wanted," "For Sale," "Rooms to Rent," etc. These classified advertisement coupons can be used at the time the books are bought or at a later date as may be desired.

ACTRESS JILTS MILLIONAIRE
Poor Chorus Girl Refuses to Wed Wealthy Los Angeles Man.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Stranded in Chicago with hundreds of other members of her profession, Miss Diane Ost, a handsome Memphis girl who has declined the hand and wealth of a Los Angeles millionaire, preferring the glare and glitter and incidental tribulations of a stage life to an existence of opulent ease.

When the operatic company, with which she has been playing, crashed on the rock of financial stringency, William Atchinson, of Los Angeles, who had followed the attraction across the continent to lay siege to Miss Ost's heart, hastened to Chicago, where he found her ensconced with her mother at the Revere House awaiting an engagement.

Atchinson offered her one that would be permanent, with a command of his fortune but despite her discouraging

BARTENDER TAKES GUN FROM HOLD-UP MAN
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—After attempting to hold up a saloon on North Main street last night, James Jenkins, believed to have been implicated in several daring robberies in this city recently, was run down and captured by Patrolman D. T. Murphy. Jenkins entered the National saloon, and, presenting a revolver, ordered the inmates of the place to throw up their hands. The bartender rushed at the intruder and disarmed him. He was captured after a long chase.

Doan's Regulets cure constipation, tone the stomach, stimulate the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passages of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

For "Automobile Eye" Insurance Ask Your Druggist for Doan's Eye Remedy

At various playhouses throughout the country young Atchinson was a conspicuous figure, always an occupant of a box. He never missed a performance and at each he would present Miss Ost with a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses, when she appeared upon the stage.

Atchinson gave up the quest today and left for the coast in disgust.

SOUTHEASTERN TEXAS DRENCHED BY FLOODS
HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 20.—Since Saturday rain has fallen almost incessantly throughout the southeastern part of Texas and in consequence all the smaller streams are overflowing and the rivers are at or very near the flood stage. The heaviest precipitation is reported from Lockhart, where the rain gauge showed a measurement of 8 1/2 inches between 10 o'clock last night and an early hour today.

At Nacogdoches residences along Bonito creek are under water to the first floors with four inches of rain having fallen there. Much damage to roads, bridges and farms is being done by the floods and the railroad roadbeds are soft and dangerous. Plains cannot make schedule time and washouts are reported from a number of points. It was still raining early today.

RAILWAYS MAY SOON NEED FEDERAL AID AND CREDIT

In Address at Kansas City, Says That
$6,000,000,000 Will Be Needed—Stop
Confiscatory Legislation.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 20.—"If such a thing as a public mind, there will be no power short of a pledge of the credit of the government itself to secure the funds necessary to provide more trucks."

This far-reaching assertion was the key note of a speech delivered by James J. Hill, head of the Great Northern Railway, at the thirteenth annual banquet of the Commercial Club in this city last night.

On the subject of the "Commercial Development of the Mississippi Valley," Mr. Hill gave a comprehensive review of the present railroad situation. His allusion to the possible necessity of the government aiding with its credit as a consequence in the present situation of what he calls a general assault on the integrity of railroad property and management resulting in a wild and in which over 170 acts more or less confiscatory of railroad property were enacted by the legislatures of more than a score of States.

During the course of his exhaustive address Mr. Hill said among other things:

FACILITIES SHORT OF DEMAND

The transportation facilities of the whole country are in a state of unequal to its present demands. They must be made equal to the burdens they bear or the country cannot prosper.

The problem in that remains is both physical and financial to bring construction up to the needs of our immense domestic commerce and to raise the necessary money to do this.

Only by improved methods of operation has the country been saved from a complete breakdown of traffic as would have destroyed business activity and turned it into a game of confusion and chaos.

LOWEST RATES IN HISTORY

This achievement in connection with a constant reduction of rates that has brought the average per mile for each passenger in the country in the last ten years to about two cents and the freight rate to 74 cents per ton per mile, a saving that amounts to billions of dollars in the aggregate, will be better appreciated after a comparison between the statistics of railroads in the United States and the systems of other countries.

The percentage of net earnings available for distribution on the capitalized cost of the railroad in England is 3.5 per cent. In France 4. In Germany 5. The average of these is 4.4 per cent on a much higher capitalization per mile amounting in England to over four times as much.

The total dividends declared by all the railroads of the United States in 1906 were but 4.4 per cent of the total capital stock outstanding. Over 73 per cent of outstanding stock now dividends what were paid.

Cost but from one-half to one-fifth as much as the systems of other countries and of carrying rates from one-half to one-third as great at carrier nearly double the business per mile and pay twice the rates of wages.

LIMIT OF SPEED REACHED

Men in charge of the railroads in this country have struggled for nearly fifteen years with the greatest problem of our time—how to make a load whose weight increases from 10 to 15 per cent a year with an engine whose power increases at the rate of about 2 per cent a year.

The limit of safe and reasonable service with existing facilities has been reached. The measure of prosperity is the ease and certainty with which commodities may be moved.

A year ago I said that it would require $5,500,000,000 or $1,100,000,000 a year for five years to make our railroad facilities equal to the demands upon them. Although substantially the amount of money suggested by me has been collected and spent the railroads have barely held their own and the future remains to be provided for. Not less but in the opinion of competent judges more perhaps fifty per cent more must be spent annually for the five years to come.

There are but two reasons actual scarcity of money and reluctance to invest which overshadow the outlook.

Political campaigns in many States have been made on the issue of a general assault on the integrity of railroad property and management. There followed a wild raid in which over 170 acts more or less confiscatory of railroad property were enacted by the legislatures of more than a score of States. The consequence to the transportation system to railroad construction and through these to the price of farm products and to the success of every form of business have already made themselves felt and the country suffers under the blow.

"If such continues to be the attitude of the public mind there will presently be no power short of a pledge of the credit of the government itself able to secure the funds necessary to provide more trucks."

LARGER VIEW OF JUSTICE

"Before we again realize a favorable disposition to invest there must be a different temper, a larger view of justice, a better appreciation of what the railroads of the United States have done and are doing as compared with those of the rest of the world, and a settled policy of fair and reasonable liberal treatment and protection for the future."

It is necessary to this end that the operations of our railroads should be regulated properly by wholesome and fair laws and quite as necessary that they should not be regulated improperly. Regulatory statutes now in force are of such a nature and stringency that no one doubts their efficiency.

Whether this is a time for new enactments or for a patient and just enforcement of the law as it stands may be judged from the records of the past but so and to wholesale denunciation and wholesale proscription destructive of all credit and reputation to all sense of justice as well as hostile to every business interest in the land.

It is time for the whole country to sit down and talk out the problems before it.

2000 MEET FOUNDER OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Nearly 2000 members of the Chicago Christian Endeavor Union greeted Dr. Francis P. Clark, founder and president of the World Union, at the quarterly rally and anniversary celebration held last night in the Union Park Congregational Church. An overflow meeting was held in the Third Presbyterian Church.

Following the meetings a banquet attended by 20 officers and workers was held in Dr. Clark's honor. Dr. Clark and William Shaw, general secretary of the World Union, spoke of the foreign work of the organization and urged co-operation for greater activity in the foreign fields.

RICH GIRL IS TO WED DUKE

Miss Shonts, Daughter of Railway Magnate, Will Marry Frenchman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Theodore P. Shonts and Mrs. Shonts announced yesterday the engagement of their youngest daughter, Miss Theodora, to Emmanuel Theodore Bernard Marie d'Albaret de Luyne d'Ally, ninth Duc de Chaumes et de Picquigny and Marquis d'Angneau. The young Duke also possesses several titles of Italian and Spanish nobility, including that of Prince.

Miss Shonts is 18 years of age. Duc de Chaumes as he is called his other titles not being usually mentioned is 30. His wedding of Miss Shonts has been perished since the two met last year while Mrs. Shonts and her two daughters were abroad. Theodore P. Shonts, who re-

LIBRARY LOSES MANY BOOKS

Practice of Stealing Volumes Common, is Report of Librarian Green.

Librarian Charles S. Greene of the Free Public Library bitterly denounces the practice of book thievery which in his annual report to the Board of Library Trustees he declares is prevalent to an amazing degree among borrowers from the local library.

"The library thief is worse than the ordinary petit larcenist," says Librarian Green. "In that he is an ingrate to the city that is generous to him and that he steals where he has been trusted."

He affirms in his report that 772 books are unaccounted for during the last fiscal year and lays the responsibility to the borrower from the library files who fails to return the volumes and to the delinquent thief who robs the shelves of whatever literary treasures he may desire.

The number of volumes missing he writes, is less than last year by far and yet it is so great as to compel the most serious reflection. I do not believe that 772 books have been intentionally stolen from this library. Most of the volumes that disappear are taken with the seemingly innocent intent of reading and returning. But the same levity that allows the beginning in a way not quite right goes a little farther, and the careless borrower is careless about returning, which means in plain English that he becomes a thief. It is an ugly word but not ugier than the fact warrants for the library thief is worse than the ordinary petty larcenist in that he is an ingrate to the city that is generous to him and that he steals where he has been trusted.

ORGAN RECITAL EVERY SUNDAY

Series of Musicales Being Arranged for First Congregational Church

A series of Sunday afternoon organ recitals is being planned by members of the church to watch the people who enter. To betray the confidence so shown in the public is to prove one's self unworthy to live in a civilized community.

Should it not prove possible to convince the public that taking books without having them recorded at the desk will not do it may force the library to close the shelves, as has lately been done in Los Angeles.

Again I urge on all parents and teachers of all good citizens by precept and example to help stamp out this moral laxity. It is a matter that reaches far beyond the loss of library books.

First Congregational Church, and if the co-operation of the musicians about the city is secured they will be continued through the winter months. The hour has been fixed at 4 o'clock and a number of the most representative organists about the bay have been asked to participate. The recitals will be of a more or less popular nature and have been planned by the pastor, Rev. Charles R. Brown, to enter to a large class of people who on Sundays are more or less at a loss for a place of healthful recreation at little or no expense during the time the weather and muddy condition of the natural parks about the city forbid their use.

The first recital will be given the second Sunday in December by Miss Virginia de Fremery, the organist of the church, and she will probably be assisted by one of the soloists of the choir as it is planned to have a vocal or instrumental soloist to assist on each program.

CLASSICAL MUSIC FOR BAIREUTH FESTIVAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—In a letter to Charles Dalmoré who is to sing Lohengrin at Baireuth next summer, Frau Cosima Wagner has disclosed her plans for the coming festival. The two cycles of "The Ring" are to be given besides performances of "Lohengrin" and "Parsifal." The festival will begin on July 4 and last for about a month.

"Lives of Great Men Oft Remind Us"—

In every large city there are a few men whose names stand out among the thousands—men who do things to benefit an entire community—men of strong character and masterful minds. These same men would prove great in any city under any condition in any land.

In every great city there are, among hundreds, a few big, strong business houses. Firms whose names glorify the city in which they do business—institutions that have grown greater than their fellow merchants because of their greater ability or greater desire to give more in value, merchandise and service.

No establishment on this coast has leaped into public favor so firmly and grown as rapidly as S. N. Wood & Co. The reason for this growth and popularity has simply been a performance of continuous superior values—satisfactory merchandise and splendid service—vital virtues that would win out everywhere, just as they are winning out in the cities of San Francisco and Oakland and New York.

S. F. BANKER IS OPTIMISTIC

Financier Declares Situation Across Bay Is Returning to Normal Conditions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Homer S. King, president of the Clearing House Association, said today that the local financial situation was gradually returning to a healthy condition. Less than five millions in scrip are in circulation, and it is the judgment of the financiers that no more paper will be called for. Except for the circulation of paper the money market is almost normal already, but gold is still commanding a good rate of interest for short time loans.

The sub-treasury received this morning $570,000 for distribution among three local banks.

S. F. JEWELER LOSES ON TWO FORGED CHECKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—J. P. Becker, manager for Sorenson & Company, jeweler, reported to the police today that a man giving the name of Charles Bell had succeeded in passing on him two checks, one for $14 and another for $24, drawn on the Berkeley National Bank. He says that the checks were later returned with the words "no funds" written across their face.

He describes Bell as 20 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches in height, and nicely dressed. Detectives Bailey and Murphy are working on the case.

REPORT MAN MISSING.

Peter Tourlet, of 23 Rich street, San Francisco, has been missing from his home since November 6th. He is 40 years old, 5 feet, 10 inches in height, dark complexion, brown eyes and brown mustache.

BURGLARS STEAL LIQUOR.

Burglars broke into the saloon of F. J. Lawrence, 1887 1/2 Twelfth street, last night, and stole $1 from the cash register and some liquor from a barrel behind the bar.

'CITY FINANCES IN GOOD SHAPE,' SAYS TREASURER

Current Expenses of Departments and Bond Interest Payments Will Be Promptly Met.

Just now when the State Legislature is contemplating the enactment of laws extending the payment of first installment of taxes the condition of Oakland's municipal financial condition is of interest. With general business going on almost entirely unaffected by the money stringency, and with little or no inconvenience experienced by the general public in obtaining sufficient coin for the purposes of trade and barter, it is gratifying to feel that the City of Oakland's financial status is one of solvency.

According to City Treasurer Ayer the city has now on approved security deposit in Oakland banks $180,000, and cash in the treasurer's office amounting to $140,000, or a total of $320,000.

The assessed valuation of the city for the fiscal year 1907-8 is in round numbers $100,000,000, and the tax levied is expected to bring into the treasury about $1,250,000. From licenses the receipts will foot up $240,000, giving a revenue for the year of $1,490,000.

Of the money on hand there is $503,000 in two funds which must be kept intact as that money was realized from the sale of bonds for the building of sewers and acquisition of park sites. On January 1, 1908 there becomes due and payable $85,000 of interest on the outstanding bonds and bond redemption. There are now $250,000 of registered municipal warrants, most of which are held by the local banks, and basing estimate on last year's experience there will be about $150,000 more warrants registered, making $400,000 in all before cash can be obtained to pay off with.

"It is extremely important," said Treasurer Ayer today, "that the municipality should meet its bond interest payments promptly, and I have taken that matter up with the Oakland Clearing House. I feel assured that the local banks will see that the city has plenty of coin with which to meet bond interest and bond redemption payments when same are due. I am informed that Eastern bond experts will not pass favorably on bond issues of any city which has ever defaulted in its payments. Oakland, like other California cities, has a clean record in that regard having always met its payments to its bondholding creditors."

"The local banks, holding most of the registered city warrants, will also be asked to hold them until second installment taxes are paid. The last money to be paid for taxes will be in April. The first payment, or first installment, closes November 25, unless the Legislature extends the time, the city tax payments following the State law. I have not figured up the receipts of taxes since the 13th, when about 60 per cent of what should have been paid had been collected. We should have collected about $500,000 this month, but only the small taxpayers, as a rule, have been paying, and it takes many $5 or $10 payments to equal what a big taxpayer has to pay.

"From licenses this month we will collect about $25,000 and somewhat less next month.

"I figure that I shall be able to take care of the running expenses of the city, meet the bond interest payments and pay off some of the registered warrants at an early date, but of course I cannot tell when I can pay off any warrants."

JIM HOWARD WILL TESTIFY

Alleged Slayer of Governor Gobel Placed in Cell With Caleb Powers.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Nov. 21.—The defense in the Caleb Powers trial today renewed the motion to have James Howard, now serving a life sentence in the State penitentiary, brought here to consult with Powers and his attorney, relative to the preparation of the testimony. Over the objection of the Commonwealth attorney, Judge Morris granted an order for Howard to be brought from Frankfort, Ky., at once. Under this order Howard will be placed in jail with Powers, where they will have ample opportunity to consult.

Later in the trial Howard will testify for Powers. Sheriff Waring left today for Grant county to summon a special venire of 300.

W. B. Green, brother-in-law of Powers, went with him to see that an impartial jury is secured.

YOUNG GIRL MISSING IN WEST BERKELEY

Frances Aldin, 12 years of age, is missing from her home on Twenty-sixth street between Green and Bay streets, West Berkeley, and her parents have asked the local police to assist them in locating the girl. She is described as having dark hair, brown eyes and fair complexion.

PLACE ACID ON SEWAGE NUISANCE

In accordance with the instructions of the city council to abate the nuisance caused by the overflowing of sewage at the edge of the West Oakland marsh at the corner of Twenty-second and Adeline streets, Deputy Superintendent of Streets Henning has placed a combination of oil and crude carbolic acid upon the overflow at this point.

ARE WRANGLING OVER THE HOLIDAY BILL

Assembly Judiciary Committee Holds Lively Discussion.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21.—That many banks will be attacked by depositors when it becomes generally known throughout the State that attachments can issue on holidays, was freely propounded in a meeting of the assembly committee on judiciary this morning. It was even declared by learned lawyers that it was necessary to first make a demand on a bank (each demand cannot be made on a holiday) the suit itself constituting the demand.

The failing to reach any conclusion on the "holiday" question at a meeting four hours long yesterday afternoon, participated in by representatives of the leading banks and trust companies in the State and of the clearing houses of San Francisco and Los Angeles, who were present in response to invitations for their views, the assembly judiciary committee met at 9 o'clock this morning to again take up the problem. It adjourned at 11:20 and 2 o'clock this afternoon without accomplishing anything and apparently hopelessly divided in opinion as to what proper legislation can be, or shall be enacted to enable the superior courts to issue and yet protect financial interests.

LAWYERS PRESENT.

There was present besides the full committee under Grove L. Johnson as chairman, Attorney General Webb, D. C. Cooper, the governor's private secretary, E. S. Heller, representing the San Francisco clearing house (Code Commissioner J. W. Wilby, L. T. Hatfield, representing the Sacramento banks and chamber of commerce besides numerous other learned lawyers.

It was the consensus of opinion, freely expressed, that writs of attachments can issue on the holidays proclaimed by Governor Clift, and that banks of any other business or person, and the fact that no banks have been attacked during the holiday period was attributed to the general belief of the people that writs of attachments are suspended by the governor's proclamation.

Code Commissioner Wilby was the only one present who maintained that suits against banks could not be brought without a demand for the money deposited, and that such demand could not be made on holidays, hence the holidays protected the banks. Practically all others, including Chairman Johnson, declared a demand was not necessary.

Attorney-General Webb was of the opinion that the suspension of writs of attachment was a "ministerial act" and was not included in the governor's proclamation, hence could not be legislated on.

Mr. Cooper, private secretary to the governor, quickly made known the governor's opinion on the matter and declared that the executive deemed it unwise to interfere with the ministerial functions and duties, questioned whether it was good policy and executions, and was opposed to enlarging the work of the Legislature as had already been done by the Senate committee by the governor himself.

WRITS CAN ISSUE.

"It's a question," said Mr. Cooper. "Shall the Legislature enlarge the right and duty of courts and give them extraordinary power to sit upon holidays, or shall we do nothing?"

Then it suddenly came out that writs of attachments can issue during this period of holidays. Grove L. Johnson greatly depreciated this part of the discussion and made dire predictions of what the effect would be when it became generally known to the people of the State.

"I think my prophecy," said Mr. Johnson, "when this becomes generally known and one bank is attacked, you will see the biggest panic that we have ever known."

"Then you must legislate to protect the interests of other people and interests as well as the banks," declared Mr. Cooper. "The people of this State have been very patient and as yet there have been no attachments invoked by depositors against banks."

OPPOSES SUSPENSION.

D. A. Lindsay, a business man of Sacramento, representing a large mercantile concern, opposed any legislation suspending this session had never been called," said he. "Can I interfere with that? You want to protect the banks. I would want to see that other people and business interests are also entitled to protection as well. There is a difference between the credit of banks and other business. Banks demand and have security for loans and credit given. Merchants and other business have not. It is about to remove property to default the creditor."

CERTIFICATE SALE OF PIANOS

The Eilers Music Co. Wants $25,000 Worth OF Clearing House Certificates, Deposit Books, or Certificates of Deposit By Dec. 1st.

For Which They Are Willing To Pay a Premium.

The EILERS MUSIC COMPANY surely are optimistic regarding the stability of Alameda County banks and future business conditions. No piano establishment in the entire country has leaped into public favor so firmly and grown as rapidly as they have. The reason for this growth and popularity has simply been a performance of continuous superior values and splendid service and a rigid adherence to any promises made. When they advertise a special sale they take advantage of the well known and undisputed fact that they are by far the largest venders of pianos on the Pacific Coast and does it not look to reason that, with their immense purchasing power, supplying as they do an immense chain of stores distributed through the entire Northwest and Pacific Coast, they can afford to make prices so low that it absolutely precludes any possibility of legitimate competition. Why have they attained the prominence in the piano trade which they securely hold? Simply by fair and square dealing and low prices. For a special holiday offering they propose to submit to the piano purchasing public of Alameda County a remarkable proposition, if not unique.

25% PREMIUM ON ALL CLEARING HOUSE CERTIFICATES TENDERED US AS FIRST PAYMENT ON ANY PIANO IN OUR WARE-ROOMS UP TO THE PRICE OF $600. SUBSEQUENT PAYMENTS TO SUIT YOUR CONVENIENCE.

30% PREMIUM ON YOUR SAVINGS BANK BOOKS OR CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT ON ANY BANK OF ALAMEDA COUNTY WHERE THE AMOUNT OF DEPOSIT EQUALS THE PRICE OF THE PIANO.

IN CASES WHERE YOUR DEPOSIT BOOK CALLS FOR MORE THAN THE PRICE OF YOUR PURCHASE UP TO A REASONABLE AMOUNT THEY WILL CASH SAME, TOGETHER WITH ACCURED INTEREST TO DATE.

They fully realize that the above offering is unusual, but must dispose of a large number of pianos quickly to make room for their immense holiday stock already en route and realize that to do this drastic measures must be pursued.

MISS NORTON'S ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED AT RECEPTION

TO WED HERBERT BROOK OF BOSTON

Elaborate Tea Given by Mother of the Bride-to-Be.

The engagement of Miss L. Maud Norton and Herbert Brooke, of Boston, was announced this afternoon at an elaborate tea given by Mrs. M. Norton, from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock, at her home in Peralta Heights.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Norton, of Newton avenue, East Oakland.

The groom-to-be is a young business man, recently from Boston.

The house was decorated in flowers and ferns, with a color scheme of pink and green.

The guests were entertained by a number of instrumental and vocal selections.

MANY ARE PRESENT.

The following assisted Mrs. Norton and Miss Norton in receiving: Miss Ethel Ayers, Miss Maud London, Miss Jennie Winkles, and Miss Lorraine Norton.

There were about fifty guests, and among them were: Miss Myra Withers, Mrs. Le Boeuf, Miss Estelle Le Boeuf, Miss Maud Le Boeuf, Miss Larson, Miss Hughes, Miss Ruby Rust, Miss Clara Galloway, Miss Wood, Miss Geo. Hear, Miss Johnson, Miss Adelle Wood, Mrs. Winkles, Miss Dell Winkles, Miss Thos. DEPART FOR HARBOR MEET

First Section of Oakland's Delegation to Congress to Leave This Evening.

The first section of the Oakland delegation to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which convenes at Washington, D. C., December 4, 5, and 6, will leave tonight from the San Francisco depot at Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue, on the 10 o'clock train.

In the party will be ex-Governor George C. Pardee, Mrs. Pardee, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. Miller, and Charles H. Brennan. E. C. Sessions will start Saturday night.

The remainder of the delegation have arranged their schedule, so the whole representation will unite at El Paso, where a private car will be chartered for the remainder of the journey.

It is the intention of the delegates to gather as much data as possible previous to the meeting of the Harbors Congress, so the needs of the city will be hand in hand with the waterway improvements can be presented with the strongest possible arguments.

For this purpose, the harbors of Galveston, Charleston and New Orleans will be visited and thoroughly inspected. The most modern dockage devices will be studied and the manner in which these cities have attained such wonderful results in harbor facilities of the Chamber of Commerce, made out credentials for nineteen delegates.

COLLINS EXPLAINS PROPERTY TRANSFER

Regarding the transfer of the San Leandro road property which was announced in THE TRIBUNE yesterday, Dr. Edward Collins, president of the California Bankers' Association, said this morning:

"The statement that the transfer related to property I had recently acquired from the Vandercook is an error. It was simply the recording of a mortgage covering a loan made to Mr. Vandercook to protect his note which the bank holds. When the loan was made the recording of the mortgage given as security was reserved until the present time, as many such instruments are under similar circumstances, at the request of the maker of the note. I had no other interest in the property or in the mortgage."

ESTATE VALUED AT $4500.

An appraisal in the estate of the late Charles Bisagno, was filed this morning with the County Clerk. Bisagno was a property in San Francisco valued at $3000 and a claim against the Bank of California for $1500.

Every man is said to have his price—but the trouble is nobody but himself knows the private mark.

TEAR PICTURE; SHOT TO DEATH

Summary Punishment Is Given Soldier Mutineers in Russia.

ODESSA, Nov. 21.—The trial by a special military court of 27 men of the Eleventh Nicholas II regiment, on charges of mutiny and insubordination, came to an end here yesterday. Two sergeants and one private, who had destroyed a picture of Emperor Nicholas, were sentenced to death and at once shot. Nine other men were sent out to the mines for life, twelve were sent to the mines for ten years and the others were acquitted.

BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CONFIRMATION SUITS

Thanksgiving, the day set apart from business cares for the giving of thanks for the blessings which we have received, is only a few days off. Many thousands of boys will need new suits that are appropriate for confirmation for this occasion. We have them in the staple two-piece, the jaunty Norfolk with knickerbocker pants; the many vest suit with knee pants, and the Boy's Tuxedo for full dress, and the long pant suits from 13 to 19 years, all in blacks and blues, priced from

$3.95 to $15.00

In fact, we have suits enough for every boy on this side of the bay, and some from the other side. See our Eleventh street windows.

"HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN"

Look at me—take a second look—had to go back to bill posting again—some other boy here in this store got jealous 'cause I stand a little nearer the throne than he does, so what does he do but go and send to another town down south every one of my cuts showing me in all sorts of ways, and this is the only picture I have left. If I find out which kid done it I shall chastise him severely—so there now, but don't you worry about me. The store is still running; still open for business. Lordy, nothing can stop

The Truth About Trading Stamps

Natural Outgrowth of a Practicable Form of Cash Trade Inducement Which the Merchant May Offer Patrons.

The trading stamp is a modern embodiment of an old idea. The principle of offering an inducement for spot cash or prompt payment antedates the history of merchandising. In the wholesale world, a discount in consideration of prompt payment is expected and demanded. This of course takes the form of cash and is figured off the invoice. In retail transactions a method of this kind could not be practically followed nor so satisfactorily carried out.

The principle upon which trading stamps are founded—that which brought them into existence—is to induce purchasers to pay for merchandise immediately upon being delivered—to do away with bookkeeping. Retail transactions are usually of so limited an amount that a discount in cash would appear trivial—although, if allowed to accumulate it would in the aggregate amount to considerable. There is the objection also that small coins easily disappear (they are convenient to spend). A trading stamp can not be spent until a number have been obtained, sufficient to enable you to secure something worth while. In other words, instead of receiving a cent or two when you make a cash purchase you are given trading stamps, in lieu thereof, which may be pasted in a book and securely kept until the required number has been obtained. The principle upon which the trading stamp is founded is as unquestioned as that of banking and life insurance, but as is the case with these two important factors in commercial life, the value of the principle depends upon the stability and integrity of the institution and men behind it.

It is a significant fact that the only concern which has made a success of the trading stamp proposition is The Sperry & Hutchinson Co.—the concern which originated and first promoted trading stamps. This company is pre-eminently responsible for every trading stamp it issues. For that reason it has been able to make contracts with such widely known and reputable institutions as The Slegel Cooper Co., New York; Rothschild & Co., Chicago; Powell Mercantile Co., Minneapolis; A. T. Lewis & Sons Dry Goods Co., Denver; Lit Bros., Philadelphia, etc., etc.

Much criticism has appeared in the local press which has been as unjust as it has been adverse. No just reason can be advanced why any merchant may not offer his customers a discount for cash, nor can anyone consistently object to that merchant making the discount in whatever form he chooses. We must, however, reflect and console ourselves with the fact that history is chiefly made up of man's opposition to new or advanced ideas and to the modification of old practices. All through the centuries he seems to have been imbued with the belief that those things to which he is accustomed are the best; that any deviation therefrom endangered the established institutions which the maintenance of which, he seems to have believed, depended his welfare. But right must prevail, and with equal certainty only the best of man's efforts will be preserved. Old ideas must and will give way to new and advanced ideas. This applies to every walk in life.

It is safe to predict that those who now neglect to collect "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps will regret it at some future time. It is equally certain that those who now take advantage of their opportunities to obtain them will be rewarded by many useful and decorative articles at absolutely no expense to themselves, and will duly appreciate what so many leading merchants are doing for them today in giving them "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps.

One visit to the store of The Sperry & Hutchinson Co., at 422 Penn street, which is stocked with an endless variety of merchandise, consisting of nearly everything ornamental or useful in a home, will convince you that the famous "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps are desirable for everyone, no matter what his or her station may be.—The Independent (37th Pa.).

Not Even a Plausible Proposition.

The small but noisy group of gentlemen who have been vociferously annexing half a dozen counties to San Francisco are quite harmless. Very little attention is being paid to them or their scheme for enclosing San Francisco bay within incorporation lines. The federation plan of consolidation they propose has neither the merit of economy nor efficiency. They have taken the New York model without being impelled thereto by the peculiar geographical and political conditions which prompted the formation of the Greater New York government. The municipal government of New York is the most expensive in the world, the tax rate there being higher than the tax rates of Oakland and San Francisco combined. The machinery of government is cumbersome and complex beyond description, the licensing of liquor being in State hands and the paving of streets controlled by the boroughs. Four distinct political activities—State, county, municipal and borough—operating jointly within the limits of one municipal incorporation are conducive to extravagance and confusion, as New York has found to her cost. However, the conditions of the water supply and the necessity for rapid transit compelled unity of action of some sort, and the clumsy, expensive system of municipal federation was adopted. Shallow, ill-informed people here would assume the penalties of New York without the compensating features or the imperious necessity which forced consolidation. What compensation would the people of Oakland, for instance, get in return for the surrender of her harbor improvement schemes which she would be compelled to give up under consolidation? What advantage has San Francisco to offer the municipalities on this shore of the bay in return for the sacrifice of their political independence? Until a reasonable and convincing answer is made to this question the scheme of annexation advocated under the guise of federation will not be seriously considered by the Alameda cities. A mere whoop-up of interested parties will accomplish nothing.

To Test the Game Laws.

As soon as the bank holidays are over, a genuine test of the game laws relating to the limit placed upon the number of wild ducks in one's possession on any given day is to be made by D. W. Martin, former president of the San Rafael Board of Trade, backed by the San Francisco Game Transfer Company. Up to date no genuine effort has been made by any one to test the validity of the game laws. Where arrests have been made the defendant has paid the fine to avoid loss of time and attendant inconvenience, or else an agreed case has been taken into court, in which the defense put up was a sham in order to leave the trial judge in a position wherein he could do nothing more than render a decision sustaining the laws and imposing the penalty for their violation.

Recently some prominent men in an influential sportsman's club were taken in by a game warden for alleged violation of the bag limit, but it seems to have been suddenly dropped. It is a well known fact that when it comes to applying the law to sportsmen's clubs, evasion of the penalty is easy by dividing up the day's shoot among the members to conceal the fact that any one has exceeded the limit. It is the market hunters or the game dealer who is invariably pinched to prevent the non-hunting public from being supplied with game and to reserve the latter to an exclusive set of sportsmen and epicures.

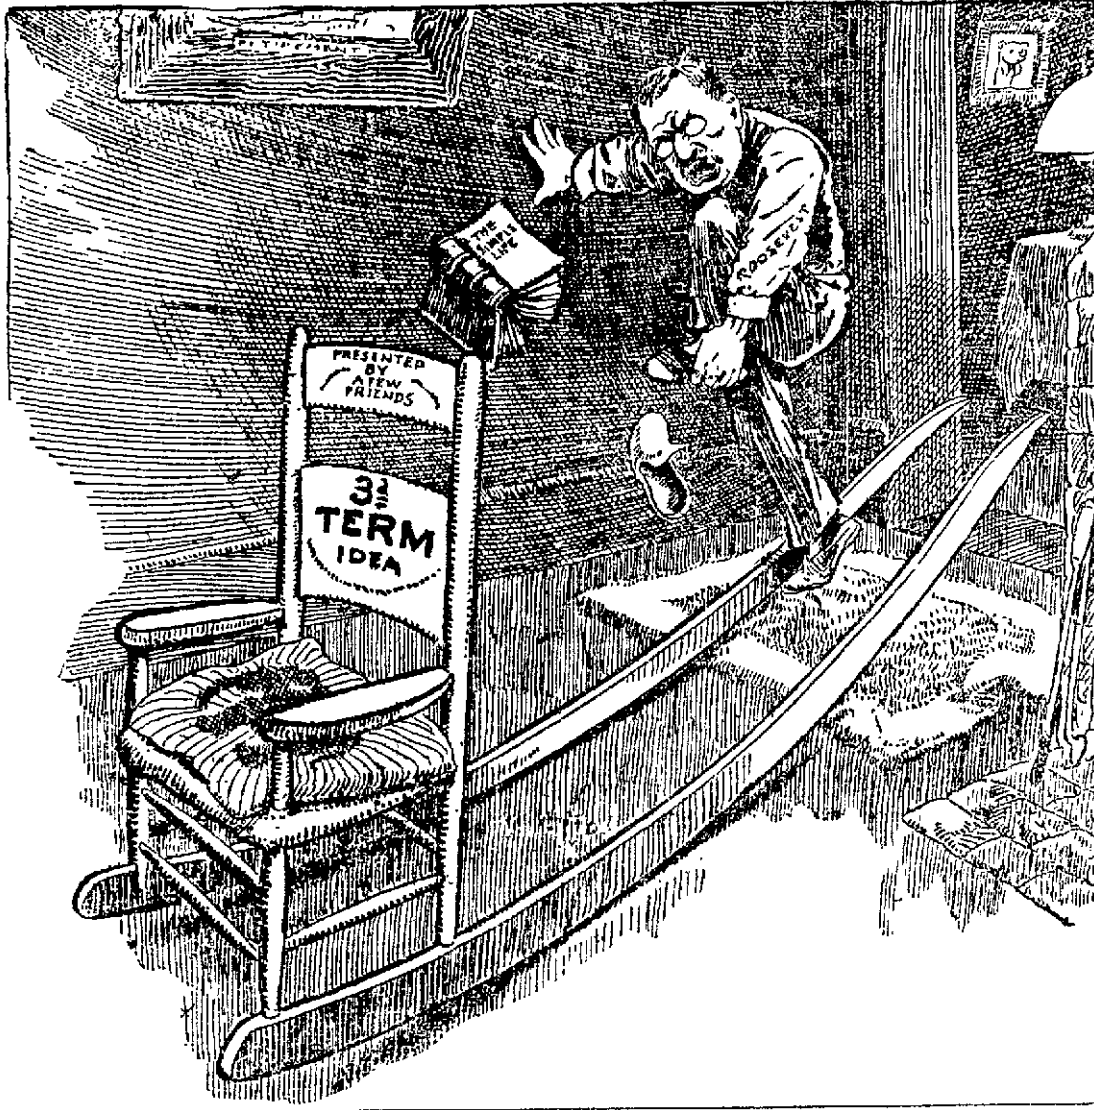

During the deer season one of the strangest slips made by two club sportsmen was the publication of a photograph taken by them of the trophies of a day's work in the Mendocino county woods showing seven bucks hanging in a line on a pole and the slayers at either end. Neither seemed to be conscious of the fact that one or other had over-shot the limit of three in one season, and it seems to have escaped the notice of game wardens and commissioners, for no prosecution followed. Whether these sportsmen killed other deer during their outing, which they probably did, was prudently not reported.

The trouble with the game laws of this State are that they discriminate in favor of a leisure-loving class who can afford at any time during the game season to lay off a day or a week for slaughter, and against those whose business it is to sell game and those on whom they must depend for a supply and against the great majority of the people who cannot afford a day or a week's sport or who cannot shoot, if they are able to spare the time, and cannot buy wild game, save at a prohibitive price, because the dealers are prohibited from keeping a stock on hand, and the shooting limit is too small to warrant any one making a business of supplying the market. Game laws should be framed solely so that a closed season will protect the wild animals of value as human food products from being slaughtered during the breeding season and that the forest reserves and the State and national parks shall be made perpetual preserves, in order that they may multiply in perfect security and find a safe place of refuge at all times of the year, which will make their extermination impossible. But our game laws as they are, with their time and quantity limitations, trade limitations, hunter's licenses and other restrictions have become more chthonous than the anti-poaching laws of Great Britain, framed and fostered for a privileged class, ever were, although they were important factors in the colonization of her penal settlements. If the Marin county test case to be brought to trial succeeds in breaking down a vicious and unpopular system of game protection, of no general public benefit, it will have accomplished a great public good. Our game laws are now merely encouraging the commission of technical crimes, not protecting game or general public interest in the preservation of game.

Washington's anti-cigarette law, which banished the cigarette from the State, was knocked out in the first round the other day at Spokane, where in a test case tried in the Superior Court, the judge declared the law void because the title and the body of the act do not conform with one another. Whoever fathered the bill and voted for its passage must have been very dull not to have discovered the little joker in the course of its passage and amended it. When the act went into effect, tobacco dealers throughout the State hurriedly got rid of their cigarette supplies. Now they will hasten to get in new stocks, as the decision removes the inhibition on the sale of cigarettes.

The streams of coin going into active circulation indicate that the use of clearing house certificates will be unnecessary in a very short time.

Earnings of Atlantic Steamships.

When the steamship Celtic, the first of the White Star Steamship Company's mammoth freight carrying leviathans was launched and put into commission, the opinion was freely expressed in shipping circles that the size limit of a steamship's profit-earning capacity had been reached, if not actually overstepped. Great stress was laid on the fact that there was only one harbor on the eastern seaboard of the United States which had sufficient depth of water to allow a vessel of the Celtic's draft to enter and depart, and that in all probability it would be difficult to obtain full cargoes at any port for a craft of such extraordinary carrying capacity.

At the same time the opinion was widely entertained that the limit had been reached in the earning capacity of the Atlantic record-breaking passenger carriers of the rival German and British steamship companies, as the ratio of benefits and increased fuel consumption had ceased to be proportionate, the extra cost of the latter in order to attain speed having cut down the former at an alarming rate. It is a matter of record that the profits of the Deutschland and the Kaiser Wilhelm, the former Atlantic record holders, have been comparatively small, and some of the voyages of the first named have been made at an actual loss.

Experience has, however, proved that these pessimistic views of big steamship operation have been faulty. The Celtic and her sister ships in the White Star line have been large profit earners, the ratio of profit exceeding that of increased cost of operation very materially. And the indications are strong that the adoption of the turbine engine as a substitute for the reciprocating marine engine in the new Cunarders will produce the same result in passenger-carrying. The Liverpool Courier has been figuring on the results so far obtained in the operation of the Lusitania, the present Atlantic record-holder, and it reaches the conclusion that her net earnings on the passages made across the Western ocean have averaged $66,000 per trip. That amounts to a total net earning of $1,200,000 a year, if maintained, as she makes ten round voyages or twenty passages in each twelvemonth. The same result is expected to be obtained with the Mauretania.

If these vessels continue, therefore, to earn at the rate named, it will take but few years for them to pay back to the treasury of the Cunard Company every cent invested in their construction. It is an unexpected revelation to the mercantile maritime world and a tremendous boost to the turbine engine.

The Foraker boom launched by the League of Republican Clubs in Ohio looks suspiciously like a petard under Taft's Presidential apple cart.

Munyon's Rheumatic Remedy Made Him Well.

Mr. Wm. J. F. Reynolds, ex banker and financier, writes, "On October 23, 1907, I was perfectly helpless with rheumatism. I could not walk, I could not stand, my feet, ankles and knees were terribly swollen and I had not known a night's rest for more than a year. I used every available remedy known, with little or no relief. A friend advised Munyon's Rheumatic Remedy, and, reluctantly I tried it. The first bottle relieved and I purchased another. Before the second bottle had been half used I was absolutely and perfectly cured. I never felt better in my life than I feel now."

*Young People of South Berkeley
Work for Church.*

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—A Mother Goose cantata will be given by young people in South Berkeley Thursday and Friday night in Lathrop Hall for the benefit of the South Berkeley Baptist Church. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Marietta B. Willats, who will take the part of Mother Goose. This play was given in San Francisco in Colonial Theater last spring by the school children of that city for the benefit of the public schools. The cantata is replete with catchy and amusing incidents, and is expected to prove very interesting.

Mrs. Marietta Bosworth Willats preparing the production and will the part of Mother Goose. Bosworth Willats, her son, will be Simple Simon. Hugo Maas will play Tom, Tucker, the dainty part of Little Bo Peep will be played by pretty little Minnie Kimball, a year-old school girl of Berkeley.

BIRKELEY, Nov. 21.—Word has been received by Berkeley friends of Prof. Jerome Landfield that he and his bride will arrive in Berkeley some time next week. Professor Landfield is a member of the University faculty and has been abroad studying political conditions. He is a Russian by count, but he was the land of one of Russia's princesses. Mrs. Landfield is a titled Russian, a member of the nobility, and a full-fledged princess, of whom the Paris and American papers have written in complimentary terms at length, of whose charms no half enough has been said, according to those who have met her.

IS A STUDENT.

She is a splendid linguist and is a remarkable student of history and economics. Dr. Landfield has been connected with the University of California faculty for many years past, and though a comparatively young man has won distinction in his field.

She has written at length regarding Russia and its conditions, and his work has been recognized as authoritative. He has been lately a frequent visitor in the society circles about the bay, and in San Francisco before his departure for abroad. He made a name in the most conservative families there.

RUSH WORK ON CALIFORNIA FIELDS

BERKELEY, Nov. 31.—The proposed turfing of California fields is to be rushed forward as soon as the rains come. First Marsh, who is superintending the work, intended to plant English rye grass, as that is the kind most used on the English polo and rugby fields.

By next March the field will be in condition and will be used for the spring baseball games. The grass on the field adds much to the pleasure of foot and it is expected that it will have good effect on the number of men turn out for the game next year.

Springfield and Scenic Football Clubs to Contest on Berkeley Gridiron.

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—"It is as if the American people delighted in having their pockets picked. We have been asleep. Fortunately, we have just waked up. We are tired of playing a game with loaded dice always loaded against society," declared John Graham Brooks, in a lecture last night in Hearst Hall on "The Conflict Between Private Monopolies and Good Citizenship."

Then the political economist went on to prove that government regulation of the railroads and control of public lands as advocated by Roosevelt, is the only rational solution of the trust evil.

The lecture was the fifth annual West stock lecture, and Dr. Brooks paid it respects to the moneyed interests in a cautious language.

The early self-reliance of the American pioneer has reacted on the present generation in the form of lawlessness and whereas in foreign nations the most ability are kept in the service of the government by the symbols of nobility, in America we have concentrated all worship on the single symbol of money.

FRANCHISES.

"We have thrown away valuable street railway and other franchises, not knowing their value, and upon them the great monopolies have upgrown. The time has come when laws must be made to protect the common against the special interests. It is as if the American people had been blind."

"I was travelling through the South not long ago in company with a distinguished railroad president. Asking him why the figures of the killed and wounded on the American railroads were so much greater than in foreign countries, he replied that it was because we were incompetent to run the railroads; that there was an atmosphere of discontent abroad among the laboring class rendered discipline weak. And he stated finally, that to his mind the only solution of this problem was weak discipline over government ownership. In this opinion he is supported by many other railroad men, among them Collis P. Huntington."

ALAMEDA, Nov. 21. — The Young Ladies Institute will give last night at Harmonie Hall, was a brilliant success financially and socially. The hall was crowded to its capacity with the institute members and their friends. The evening of the society was spent in dancing. Many visiting members were present from the Oakland, Berkeley and San Francisco councils. This is the second annual ball given by the institute. The following are the officers in management of details. Following were the committees in charge.

MANY GUESTS GATHER AT EASTERN STAR BANQUET

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—American star of football will be played in Berkeley Thanksgiving day, the event being the first of the "batting" series between the Springfield and Seaside clubs. The match will be played on Berryman field, in North Berkeley, where the Springfield and Springfield clubs are all-star aggregations.

Among the Springfield players are six performers as Miller, former Belmont College star who was a member of the California continued the old game, J. Freeman of the varsity Rugby team. C. and Jimmie Schaeffer may be seen at the game.

Besides these, Remont, Hatch, Jor and Montgomery of the freshman team will represent Springfield on the occasion. The Springfield team is composed of college players, will play the positions of end, Captain Demaritz, who has taken part in the World Series, will be the first position again.

KEY TO EVIL.

"The key to the evil is the lack of regulated ownership, and its consequent irregularity. The solution lies in the social policy of President Roosevelt. I must regulate out of existence the crtic tricks of over-capitalization. I shall have the best talent at the service of the government until it is no longer needed to steer the railroad and other moneyed interests through the lawless course. This is not socialism! But if we can not regulate these e out of existence, I shall be willing to go to the Socialist, 'Go ahead.'"

DINNER PARTY.
At a dinner party given at the Clabemon Country Club Saturday evening A. Dalton Harrison will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Addison, Sidney Harney, Misses Sue and Pauline Persons of Mare Island, Miss Ida Pattison, Miss Annette Hall, Naval Cadet, Misses Edna and Mary E. Hall, and Mr. Wright. The guests will motor to the clubhouse and after dinner will adjourn to the ballroom for dancing.

Our New Store Opens Saturday

Our new store occupying the entire ground and mezzanine floor in the Pacific building at Fourth and Market—the largest concrete structure in the world—will be thrown open for business Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

You all know the history of our phenomenal growth—you have seen us add space innumerable times and open new stores to satisfy the pressing and ever increasing demand for our sterling clothes—made in our own workrooms and sold to you at a saving of fully one-third.

The cause for our popularity and our growth is a simple one and the story is well worth repeating.

The Direct Line

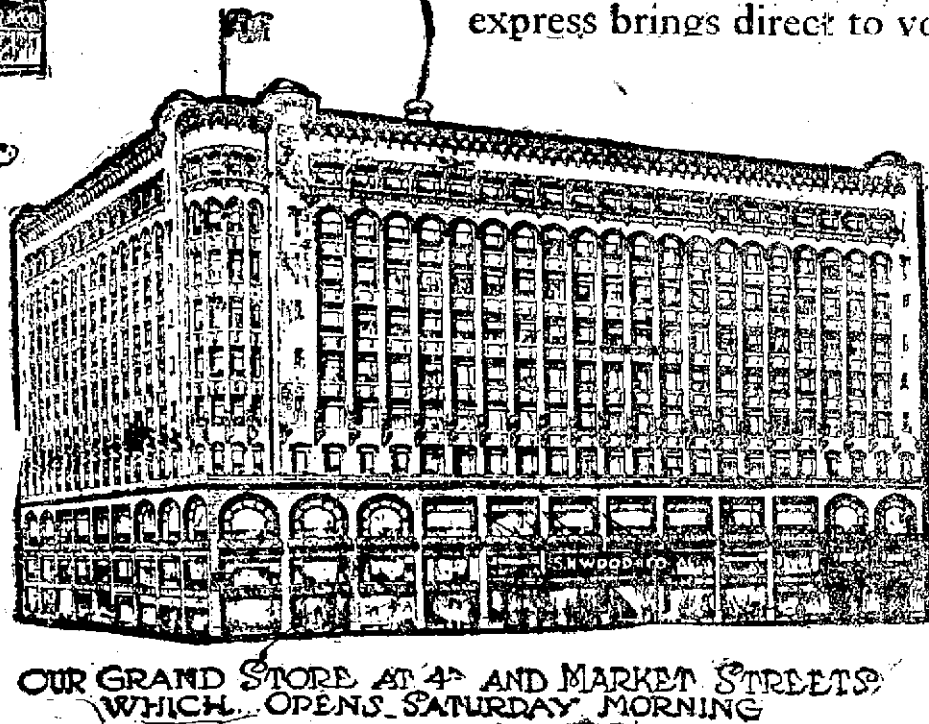

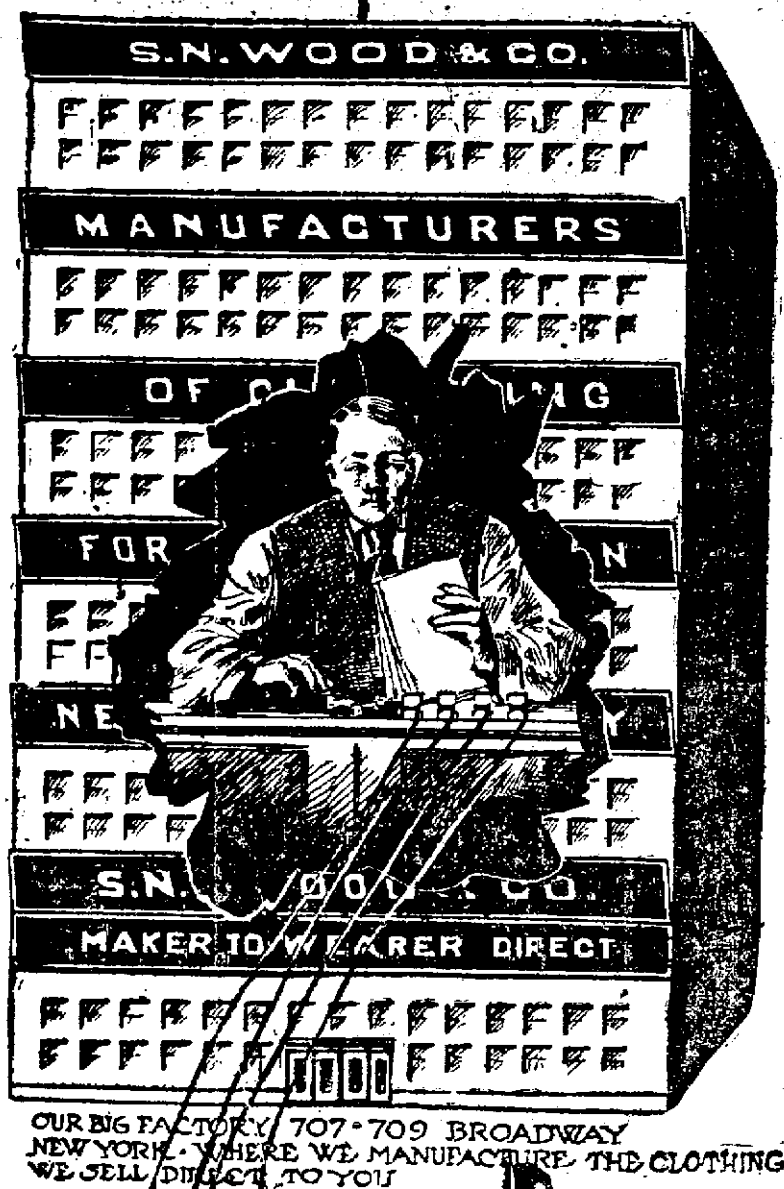

Not a single merchant in this city can buy a man's suit for less than you can—if you buy it here—that we undersell every other store is a pretty well known fact—of course there is a good reason—let's explain:

Every other merchant buys of a manufacturer or wholesaler—every other merchant pays them a profit—a big round profit. We are manufacturers—we sell direct to you—we make a profit in selling you a suit for the same price other merchants pay for theirs.

Of course no other store could live and compete with our prices. Our splendid manufacturing plant, situated at 707-709 Broadway, New York City, is but a stone's throw from the greatest fashion center in the country. We have our finger on the pulse of style and feel with lightning rapidity its slightest change. Every New York express brings direct to you clothing of the very latest style, months ahead of any that can be procured under the wholesaler's system.

Our workrooms, under the personal supervision of Mr. Benj. Wood, are equipped with the very latest appliances—our clever tailor-men know that their positions depend upon the excellency of their work and the suits we turn out are living and lasting testimonials—suits that hold trade and bring new trade.

Thus it is that we do, by far, the largest retail clothing business on the coast and our business is growing by leaps and bounds. It is not in a boasting spirit we tell you this, but merely to emphasize what the majority of men think of our values, our styles and our merchandise.

Our Thanks for Your Loyal Support

We wish to express our deepest feeling of gratification for your loyal support which enables us to present to the city of San Francisco this magnificent tribute—the finest store on the Pacific Coast.

It happens that we are opening our new store on the eve of our twenty-sixth business birthday—all our other stores will join in the celebration of this event in a most unique and timely manner, full particulars of which will appear in tomorrow's papers.

MARIETTA, O., NOV. 21.—EDGAR GRUBB, HIS WIFE AND ONE-YEAR-OLD BABY WERE CREMATED IN THEIR HOME NEAR BEVERLY THIS MORNING. NO EXPLANATION HAS BEEN GIVEN. IT IS RUMORED THAT THE FAMILY MET WITH FOUL PLAY AND THAT TO COVER THE CRIME THE HOME WAS FIRED.

WORKING GIRLS' LUNCH ROOM SAYS WIFE GAVE HIM BLACK EYE

Y. W. C. A. Opens New Cafeteria Where Cheap Meals Are Served to Women.

The Young Woman's Christian Association, corner of Fourteenth and Castro, will open their noon hour rest and "cafeteria" tomorrow at 11:30 o'clock. The women under the direction of Miss Isabel Smith, general secretary, and Mrs. R. J. Devoe have been preparing for some time to give the working girls a pleasant place to spend their lunch hour and a nourishing and well-cooked meal for the least possible cost to the girls.

The plan is for the girls to help themselves in the service room from a long table on which is placed such food as can be served cold.

EVERY CONVENIENCE. The meat and fish may be taken to a large stean, table and heated. There is every convenience and everything will be spread in a tempting way upon large tables covered with white oil cloth.

The knives and forks and napkins are ranged on a sideboard and each girl leaves the serving room with their food on little trays which have been provided they take them.

The large dining room is across the hall and has been furnished in the mission style. The tables seat four and will each have a dainty little cloth and a bouquet of flowers.

Mrs. D. J. Devoe has made this branch of the association work her special charge and her long experience makes her well fitted for her duties. She was for some years culinary instructor in the San Francisco schools, and has had experience in similar work in other places.

Every effort is being made by the women in charge of the affair to make it successful. Preparations have been made to accommodate a large number of girls. Tomorrow's menu will be a sample of the regular fare. It is:

FIRE ALARM DISTURBS STEWARD'S SLUMBERS

Steward Burnett was given an uncomfortable fat-hood when an alarm of fire was sounded on the corner of Fourth and Franklin streets about 5 o'clock this morning. Burnett was asleep when he was awakened by the cry of "Fire! Fire!" and the scuffling of feet past the hospital. He jumped out of bed and ran to the window. A few minutes later he saw a fire in the street and dashed out the front door to find that all was well and if there was a fire it was not for him to see. He saw several small children in the house and feared for them.

EMPLOYS NEW WOMAN; WATCH IS MISSING

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Jacob Schuler, a candy merchant of 2201 Sutter street, has reported to the police that a valuable gold watch was stolen from his place of business some time yesterday afternoon. He suspects a young woman, whom he only employed yesterday, and who did not return after she left the store to go to her supper at 5:30 o'clock last night.

SWAPS OLD HAT FOR $5 NEW ONE

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—Sneak thieves are still plying their calling in the college town as industriously as ever. Last evening while Harry P. Shaw of 1508 Oxford, was in the free public library, reading magazines for a few moments, he left his new $5 hat lying on the rack on the floor. When he returned he found that some one had appropriated his hat, leaving a battered remnant of black headgear in its stead.

German Firm Fails for About $2,000,000

HAMBURG, Nov. 21.—The firm of J. F. C. Moeller operating a big business at Altona suspended today. The liabilities are reported to be from $1,750,000 to $2,000,000. The most important Hamburg and other German banks, as well as a number of British firms, are involved in the failure. The assets are reported to be $500,000. It is supposed that speculation in stocks caused the failure. The firm enjoyed a high reputation and did a large business in shipping, especially in carrying manufactured goods on a large scale for use in churches, especially in Russia.

Mother and Two Sons Found Asphyxiated in Their Home.

NEWTON, Mass., Nov. 21.—Mrs. William T. Hedges killed herself and her two sons, William, aged 11, and Butler, aged 6, by asphyxiation at her home in Newtonville some time during last night. All the cracks in the doors and windows had been plugged and the gas turned on. Mr. Hedges was absent on a business trip.

PUT ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Young Montana Woman of Much Notoriety Causes Two Tragedies.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 21.—George Melville was today placed on trial in the district court on the charge of killing Winfield Guthrie. Melville and Guthrie were employed at a mine near here, Guthrie boarding with Melville.

The defense is that the killing was done because of abuse of Mrs. Melville. Melville and his wife were the chief actors in a bigamy case at Butte two years ago, they being in jail simultaneously on that charge. Mrs. Melville also achieved notoriety by testifying against her father, which resulted in his life imprisonment.

RAN AWAY WITH 13 PAIRS TROUSERS; IS JAILED

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—While Bathurst Michaels, who keeps a clothing store at 1606 Stockton street, was talking to his wife in the grocery store next door, a man, who later gave his name as Frank Moran entered the store with a pass key and taking thirteen pairs of corduroy trousers made off down the street.

He was seen by Michaels, who gave chase. The man dropped the bundle but his pursuer kept on and caught him at the corner of Stockton and Green street, where officers Drobette and Boland arrived and placed him under arrest. He was booked at the city prison on a charge of larceny.

FIGHT IN SENATE OVER BANKING RESOLUTION

Substitute Bill to That Introduced by Leavitt Is Drawn, but Not Introduced.

(Special to The Tribune.) SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21.—The subject of banking and the manner in which the banking business is conducted in this State has already aroused one of the sharpest fights in the senate. It promises to become much more intensified in the next day or so. Yesterday Senator Leavitt of Oakland introduced a concurrent resolution for the appointment of a committee of both houses to examine into the methods employed by the banks of this State in their conduct of business. A lively discussion took place, several amendments were offered, but the attempt to adopt the measures was not successful.

The resolution was referred to the committee on banking and that body last night held a lengthy session in discussing the measure. It finally decided to strike out all the preamble which set forth that the present banking method was to a certain extent responsible for the financial stringency in California. The committee then drafted a substitute containing about ten lines adding to it all the authority contained in the Leavitt resolution for the securing of evidence as to how banks are run in the various parts of the State.

LEAVITT SATISFIED. This substitute was shown to Senator Leavitt this morning and he expressed himself as entirely satisfied with it.

The substitute was to have been introduced this morning by Senator Olen Bates of Alameda, who is chairman of the committee on banks and banking, but for some reason which has not yet been explained, the introduction was deferred until after another session of the committee, which will not take place before tonight.

FEEL UPHEAVAL IN MID-OCEAN

Submarine Volcanoes in Action Change Bed of Sea.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21.—Navigators of vessels plying in the Gulf trade bring to the capital sensational reports of the effects of a great upheaval in the ocean off the coast of Yucatan, due to submarine volcanic action. They declare that in the recent upheaval which resulted in the killing of tons of fish on the Gulf coast, the bed of the ocean was changed and that soundings show great depths where formerly were shallow soundings and vice versa. The reports also show that the number of small islands were increased.

Inquiry at the department of war and marine showed that no report has been received showing any such condition and the officials had heard nothing beyond the death of large numbers of fish.

S. F. BANKERS ARE CONTENT

Situation Improving Every Day and Our Financiers Are Optimistic.

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—The situation in banking circles in this city is improving every day. The savings banks are receiving a larger portion of deposits since the beginning of the coin paying rule which was instituted by the Clearing House last week. Were it not for the legal holidays and the use of Clearing House certificates one would think the situation almost normal. All of the banks are doing business the same as formerly, although the clerks are a little more overworked because of the difficulty in coming to the certificates.

J. Cal Ewing of the Board of Bank Commissioners, when seen today, said that there was absolutely nothing new in the local situation, and probably would be no developments until after the present session of the legislature.

Daniel Brown of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company said today that the bank has as yet made no decision regarding a time for opening, but that they are working on their books and assets and making very good headway.

DRAW NEW BILL TO COVER HOLIDAY PROBLEM

Belief Is That Measure in Its New Form Will Pass the Senate.

(Special to The Tribune.) SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21.—After deliberating about forty-eight hours the judiciary committee of the senate shortly before the noon adjournment reported a bill which it is thought will solve the problem of opening the courts on holidays for the transaction of legal business.

This subject was referred by the main committee to a sub-committee, the chairman of which was Senator Curtis. After hours of careful study of the constitution and the codes (this sub-committee this morning reported to the judiciary committee the rough draft of a bill covering the subject.

This bill was considered by the whole committee, Senator Lukens of Oakland, the chairman, presiding. The bill as reported was adopted by the whole committee and one sent to the senate with the recommendation that it pass. The bill is as follows:

TEXT OF RESOLUTION. "Resolved, By the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring, that a committee of one Senator and one member of the Assembly, be appointed by the president of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly, respectively, for the purpose of making such investigation into the business methods of the banks in the State of California, and such examination of the State laws relating to banking and to report their findings in writing to the Governor and the Legislature next to meet and in such report to make such recommendations for such amendments to the law as said committee may deem best.

Said committee is hereby empowered to summon before it at any time and place the Bank Commissioners of the State and at the action of said committee may issue subpoenas directed to them to appear before said committee and testify as to all matters and things which they may be examined upon, touching the subject matter of this resolution, and may make such reports, papers, and documents as may be in the possession and control of the committee.

The last resolution provided for an appropriation of $200 for the work, half of which is to come out of the contingent funds of the Senate.

Section 134 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows: "134.—No court (other than the Supreme Court and the several District Courts of Appeal) shall be opened for the transaction of judicial business on any of the following days: On Sunday; on Saturday, from 12 m. until midnight following; on the first day of January, on the 22d day of February; on the 30th day of May; on the 1st day of July, on the 9th day of September, on the 1st Monday in September, on the 23rd day of December, and every day appointed by the President of the United States, or by the Governor of this State for a public fast or Thanksgiving, except for the following purposes:

YOUTH KISSES 13 WOMEN IN TROLLEY CARS AND SPREADS TERROR

Declares Brooklyn Dames Are So Pretty He Could Not Help It.

Was Gathered In By Policeman

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Clarence D. Warren, a young Southerner, who has been in New York a week, found Brooklyn women so irresistible last night that he kissed thirteen of them—four in one trolley car, four in another, and five in a third. All were Fifth Avenue cars of the R. E. T. Warren, after his affectionate raid in the first car, managed to escape, and repeated the same performance in the second trolley. But when he came to the third, the motorman was too agile for him, and, while the women screamed, he throttled the young fellow and turned him over to Policeman Feeney. The latter took the prisoner to the Fifth Avenue station.

Warren was transferred to the Northwestern Hospital and thence to the Kings County Hospital for examination as to his sanity.

He said that Brooklyn women were so pretty he "just couldn't help kissing them."

GIRLS Please Do Not Sneer at YE OLD MAIDS!

Once as Sweet as Yourselfes

Never sneer, girls, at an unhappy "old maid." Once she was very likely just as sweet and young and sunny-hearted as yourselfes. But she missed the road which may, perhaps, lead you to a sweetheart and a prospect of married happiness.

Of course, she was wrong to turn sour, to brood over things that cannot be helped, to be weak-spirited. There are many roses to be gathered in the garden of life over and beyond the romance belonging to men and maids.

Success and happiness can be won by any girl of today, even if nobody comes to woo. But neither is likely to come to the girl who, when love falls her, sits down to weep and wall over a might-have-been marriage.

PLEASES WASHWOMEN

A practical little invention but recently brought out is a washbowl which is supplied with a wire basket carried by a hinged ring which fits on the top of the bowl. The basket is set in place before the clothes are put in and after they have boiled sufficiently it is lifted out, bringing the clothes with it.

HOUSE CLEANING HINTS FOR ALL THE YEAR ROUND

Women Should Apply System and Adopt Modern Improvements

The regular spring and fall upheaval caused by the old ways in cleaning houses is now modified in such a degree that there need be very little disturbance in the usual ways of the household. More and more is housecleaning continued, never finished. The thorough monthly cleaning is bringing about the peaking of spring and fall housecleaning, and a well kept house is always clean like the peace and sweet odors of the first few days after the old semi-annual disturbance. Whenever the family is going away, whether in winter or July, then is the time for scrub women, painters and decorators. How much longer will women keep young, when they apply system and modern improvements to their housekeeping? There are certain parts of the house which demand a special semi-annual treatment, after the shut-in months of winter and when the summer is over, to make all hygienically clean. In the fall, when winter clothing and house draperies are brought out, sunshine and fresh air should be applied in liberal doses, after a thorough cleaning from spots and dust. Upholstered chairs, rugs, et cetera, can be vacuum cleaned in the house or sent out to be renovated, and should also be treated to a little sunshine and fresh air before being replaced. If there is danger from the destructive car-

Preparing to Honor Mrs. Pearl Craigie

Rufus Choate has charge of the memorial fund which is to commemorate the work of Mrs. Pearl Craigie, better known as Mrs. Oliver Hobbes. Money is being collected both in this country and England and it is hoped there will be enough to erect portrait tablets of her, both in her alma mater in London and in some place in the United States. The committee further hopes to establish scholarships in English literature in both countries.

SHE DEFIES WEIGHT BUT LOVE—

LITTLE STRONG WOMAN APPEARS AGAINST MUSICIAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Annie Abbott, the "Little Georgia Magnet," who can lift five times her own weight, and can defy a 250-pound man to budge her if she does not wish to move, was in the West Side Court yesterday as a complainant. She charged that William Tullius, a Czech musician, who, she said, persisted in making violent love to her and who attempted to kiss her.

Just why she did not lose Tullius out of a window or balance him on her little finger, the "Magnet" did not explain. Tullius, who lives at 333 West Forty-fifth street, denied the wooing or the attempted kiss, but declared the petite woman owed him $5 for the rental of rooms he had leased to her. He said all he wanted was the $5.

VIVID TERMS OF LOVE.

When Tullius produced a big sheet of letters he said the "Magnet" had written to him in masculine, selecting one which dealt in many vivid terms of love, asked the little woman to write: "Tears with a big bang on a piece of paper. She did so."

PETITE ACTRESS DAZZLES BROADWAY WINS FAME BY HER WONDERFUL HATS

Was Once a Milliner Latest Creation Is Five Feet Around

New York Women Jealous Even Old "Men About Town" Now Stare

To Hats, glorious creations which have dazzled the Great White Way and set all New York talking, Miss Valeska Suratt, a petite actress owes her fame and fortune. She has cut a wide, scintillating swath in the feminine horizon by means of her remarkable headgear. Her latest and what she considers greatest work, is a hat whose construction has caused even the blasé "man about town" to stare. Its circumference is five feet, height, one foot and it is two feet in diameter. To be sure she does not wear this on all occasions. It is reserved for her part in "Hyp, Hyp, Hooryay," at Joe Weber's theater. But some times she can be seen wearing its replica along Fifth Avenue or Broadway.

Miss Suratt was formerly a milliner in a little Indiana town. She reached the stage by the artist model route and soon leaped into fame through her hats.

"SHE MADE ME ELOPE," IS BOYS PLEA WHEN ARRESTED

Uncle Spies 16-Year-Old Niece and Her Lover

"THE WOMAN TEMPTED AND I DID EAT"

18-Year-Old Son of Rich Manufacturer Behind Bars

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The romance of pretty sixteen-year-old Sarah Nugent, of Passaic, and her fiancé, Clarence Haigh, who is two years her senior, came to a startling—if prosaic—ending last night, when the young girl's uncle, Daniel J. Dunphy, spied the pair on Broadway, opposite the postoffice, and caused their arrest. Miss Nugent sobbed herself to sleep in the rooms of the Children's

Society, while Haigh, who is the son of a wealthy Passaic dye manufacturer, sat in a cell at police headquarters charged with a serious offense. "One of the strange features of the case is that young Haigh declared that Miss Nugent had planned the elopement and had insisted that it be carried out. 'She just would not let me refuse her,' said Haigh."

CALLS ON POLICEMEN.

Mr. Dunphy, who is a prosperous business man of sixty, was swinging up Broadway at a fast pace when he passed Policemen Mulvaney and Canfield. Pointing toward a couple ahead of him, Dunphy exclaimed excitedly:

"Get them! get them! I will explain later, but get them!"

A few minutes later Miss Nugent, who wore a stylish leather-colored gown with a large picture hat, found herself a prisoner, with Haigh. They were marched back to where the police stood, on his charge taken to police headquarters. There Mr. Dunphy said:

IS IDENTIFIED.

"This young girl is Sadie Nugent, of No. 14 Ross place, Passaic. Her father is an employee of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad. Her mother is dead. For several months this young man has been paying attention to my niece, and one week ago last Thursday they disappeared."

"From friends we heard that they had been seen in a theater in Paterson, and we have been watching the theaters in Paterson and other New Jersey cities ever since. Today I learned that they had been seen in New York, and coming here I was lucky enough to see them in lower Broadway."

"I want them both held until the girl can be taken to her home city and sent to an institution."

GIRL PLANNED ELOPEMENT.

"It is true that I went away with this young lady, but I had no intention of doing so until last Thursday," said young Haigh. My father is a manufacturer of dye stuffs and my home is at No. 41 Westcott place, Passaic. I had my house because of trouble with my father, and I

BOSH!

Says Japanese Lady Graduate of Vassar College Who Asserts Her Countrymen Are Afraid of New Women

As I sat at a formal dinner in the city of Osaka, Japan, not long since, writes a contributor to "Circle," I asked a Japanese gentleman beside me—a highly educated and polished man of the world who is adviser to the Chinese government—if, with the great advancement in Japan in so many respects, the status of woman is advancing.

"The laboring woman? Yes. The woman bred abroad or of necessity part of the diplomatic world? Yes. As for the woman of the domestic circle—the wife, the mother, the sister, the daughter—her status is not changing. Nor should it. Any change that will bring her out of domestic retirement will expose her in a field for which nature unfits her. The wife is the home minister, with full jurisdiction in the family circle. Her husband is Premier. He, besides, attends to all things outside the household. This is as it should be, for in this way there is, and only in this way can there be, perfect domestic happiness."

At another time I sat at luncheon with a Japanese lady of high standing in Tokyo. She had graduated from Vassar College. I repeated to her the substance of the Osaka gentleman's statement and asked her opinion.

"Bosh!" she exclaimed, with smiling vivacity. "We Japanese women are coming to know our rights, and the men are afraid of us."

"DON'T LET HUMAN WEAKLINGS WED"

Thus Says a Noted Judge in Chicago Court.

Judge Willard McEwen, who presides over Chicago's famous "Divorce Court," and is known throughout the United States as an expert on the domestic ills that lead to divorce, has just said it is the business of the State to concern itself with marriages. The State is called upon to care for the feeble-minded, the degenerates, the insane, the criminals, the paupers, who are the offspring of improper marriages.

"If the applicants for marriage licenses were compelled to give full data with regard to themselves before receiving a marriage license we would at least get most valuable statistics upon which to base future legislation."

"The immediate benefits would be great. I believe that many improper marriages would be prevented. The laws now have the rest of us exiled in the restrictions they throw around marriage."

"In particular I would urge that common sense physical standards be established. Persons suffering from all manner of diseases marry under existing conditions."

"We are living contrary to the law of all nature. In nature there is the law of the survival of the fittest. The strong rule in our society it is almost a rule of the weaklings."

STRONG MAN NOT RULER TODAY.

"In tribal days the strongest man, the greatest force, had about himself the largest household. Here, in our day, it is not the strongest man who has the largest household. Maybe the weight of business cases is so great that he has no family at all."

"The person just released from an insane asylum and maybe only temporarily cured may marry at once. Should there not be some legislation to guard against such conditions?"

"The divorce problem is a great one, and will remain so as long as present conditions exist."

Judge McEwen drew forth from his inside pocket a tabulation he had made on divorces. His figures represented the average in many tabulations of hundreds.

WHAT THE FIGURES SHOW.

Out of the average hundred he presented these figures:

Divorces brought by women 75
Desertions by husbands 45
Desertions by wives 35
Charges of drunkenness 15
Charges of immorality 15
Another woman 15
Charges of drinking 15
Stiffness 15
Church weddings 15
Women who were church members 15
Men who were church members 15

Girls Don't Think Every Man Who Is Polite to You

You Will Come to Grief If You Do

(BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX.)

Don't mistake a man's attentions for serious intentions. A man meets a girl, finds her bright and pleasant to talk to, enjoys very much being with her—but he is not in love with her.

In a situation of this kind the girl must be wise and keep her head. She must not imagine that just because he finds her charming he is in love with her.

Some girls are never satisfied with friendship and companionship from a man; they want him to make love to them.

Usually the man is obliging and complies with her wish. The result is tears and hurt pride. I cannot dignify it by the term love.

Don't jump to the conclusion that a man is in love with you when he seeks your society. He probably finds you a very charming girl, but that is a far step from being in love.

Be content to enjoy a good, congenial friendship. Don't force the situation. Many a very pleasant friendship has been nipped in the bud because the man felt that the girl was taking things too seriously.

GIRL'S OWN FAULT.

The girl sets the pace, and if she encourages things to grow too fast and furious she has only herself to blame when the inevitable crash comes.

Then the poor child thinks her heart is broken and that there is nothing to live for.

In reality it is more her pride than her heart which is injured.

A summer by the sea, moonlight nights, music, all these things have a great deal to do with creating a false state of sentiment.

It is very easy for two young people to imagine themselves in love when those romantic conditions exist.

But what seemed like love by the moon's dim rays looks rather prosaic in the bright light of the sun.

The seashore is much more conducive to sentiment than the busy hum of the city.

The man who was full of poetry and romance by the sea is merely business-like when the fascination of business life lays its glamour upon him.

Then the girl, after a brief period of heartache, suddenly discovers that he was not the right man after all.

And the man breathes a sigh of relief and is glad that things did not actually reach the proposing point.

Of course it is very easy to drift into a flirtation; every girl knows that.

But keep the flirtations on a purely friendly basis. Don't allow a period of heartache, suddenly discovers that he was not the right man after all.

If you allow a man to make love to you he will not draw back; but I can assure you, girls, that you would not enjoy hearing his opinion of you.

MEN FRIENDS GOOD FOR GIRLS.

A friendship with a man is a very good thing for a girl, especially if she has no brothers. He can give her many valuable hints and help her to avoid making many foolish blunders.

Go out with your young men friends, have a good time, but don't imagine that every man who finds you attractive is in love with you.

Very often a friendship that might in the course of time ripen into a real love is soiled by the too solicitous friends of the young people. They are teased and shoved together on every occasion, people look knowingly at them and make them feel thoroughly uncomfortable and self-conscious.

The girl can usually take care of a situation of this kind, but the man gets frightened and backs out.

He is immediately afraid that things are being taken too much for granted, afraid that his liberty is being trifled with.

For the sake of your pride and dignity, girls, do not be the ones to frighten the men away from you.

Welcome them when they come, be cordial and unaffected, but don't run after them and don't try to hold them when they are eager to go.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

Mrs. Charles Heatley was hostess at a card party given this afternoon at her attractive home in East Oakland. A luncheon preceded the hour at bridge whist. The players, all members of a regular club which meets fortnightly, were Mrs. Oscar Luning, Mrs. W. A. Shrock, Mrs. M. J. Layman, Miss Blanche Layman, Mrs. John Maxwell, Miss Lillian Brelling, Miss Julia Brelling, Miss Emma Brelling, Mrs. Frederick Morse and Mrs. H. S. Kegan.

FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Edna Prather entertained last evening at a delightful card party for Miss Bessie Coghill and John G. Treanor. Among those who enjoyed the affair were Miss Rose Kales, Miss Sevilla Hayden, Miss Edna Prather, Miss Florence Treanor, Miss Alna Hoyt, Miss Fay Chapman, Miss Mattie Treanor, Benjamin Kurtz, Vere Hunter, Newton Coghill, Broadway Head, David Oliphant, Leland Cutler, Leslie Taylor and Miss Bessie Coghill and John Treanor.

C. L. A. S. LUNCHEON.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society of Alameda county are planning an elaborate luncheon to be given Saturday, November 30, at Pythian Castle. The complimentary guests on this occasion will be Mrs. D. F. Ragan of San Francisco, new grand president of the order. The affair is anticipated as one of the important events in the history of the organization and several hundred guests are expected.

OAKLAND CLUB.

The Oakland Club's Thanksgiving luncheon, which took place yesterday afternoon, was pronounced a great success. Mrs. Cora E. Jones, president of the club, acted as toastmistress on this occasion. The addresses were particularly fine and

Velvet Fold Around Neck Adds Much to Lace Berthas

Lace berthas, fichus and capelle collars are to be abundantly worn, but the pretty addition of a half-inch velvet fold around the neck and down the front edges. Some are further finished with ties of pink silk, like the fold in color which are brought down to the waist line in front and finished there with pretty rosettes; or, they end over the bust in tiny tassels drops. It is astonishing what a change this bit of velvet, crepe or faille fold will bring about in a lace collar! It makes a real garment of it! Plain satin, ribbon, faille, velvet, and also the Pompadour ribbons are used for this purpose, and, as a natural sequence to the figured ribbon, neck folds are seen here and there on which soutaches and gilt threads are patterned. These are permissible and costly additions, and to tell the truth, they are likely to catch the fancy in the back and so prove uncomfortable—Barry's Beams.

CITY GIRL MILKS COW AND HAS LEG BROKEN

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—Bossy, a short-horn cow on Henry Redmond's farm in Beaver county, was regarded as the most docile animal that ever took a prize at a Western Pennsylvania county fair, but yesterday she lost her reputation.

She gave Bossy some salt and then started the milking operations. Bossy tickled just once. Miss Wiley's right leg was fractured near the hip joint. Her return East will be delayed six weeks.

NEIL IS MADE FAVORITE IN BETTING OVER MORAN

Speculators Think That the American Will Be Able to Dispose of the British Scrapper.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

A story is told by the old residents of the former frontier States that a certain jurist while rendering his decision in a case which two men had fought to death, volunteered the following opinion as to the time and place to fight: "Every place where men meet to battle is their place and every day a Sunday." The up-to-date fight fan will not get that strong regarding his favorite sport, but tomorrow night when Frankie Neil and Owen Moran meet at the Dreamland Pavilion in San Francisco the place will be well-filled and every spectator after the first few rounds has been fought, will care little whether the place is a palace or a barn.

The fact that the contest bids fair to being a slugging one is the average fan's interest in the affair, but, of course, every follower of any game likes to pick a man to root for, and the thought has not yet been put in the mind of the bettor, but he invariably wants to be on the winner. The winner in the contest tomorrow night is, to the writer, rather a hard proposition to pick, although if one was to judge by the way the men who wager their money on the outcome of the battles of the ring, he would immediately come to the conclusion that Neil was a sure winner and Moran had only the slightest chance that every fight fan has on entering the ring.

The better last night made Neil a 10 to 7 favorite, and Thomas Corbett, the gentleman who handles commissions on the outcome of battle contests, said last night that he expected the odds to go to 10 to 6 today. The reason for this is the fact that Neil, with the great battles that he has fought in San Francisco to his credit, has made him a legitimate favorite. Then, too, Frankie will be backed by the followers of the races and as is well known they are men who place large commissions when they bet, necessitating a great many of the smaller bettors taking the other end to keep the odds anywhere near even.

The fighters in the coming battle are equally confident and both will beat a few hundred of their chances.

Moran says that he is satisfied with his condition and the showing he has made since coming to this country. He allows for his being the short-end by announcing that if the fight was to be held in London or Liverpool, where he is best known, the odds would be about 4 to 1 that he would win. Moran says that when he fought Tommy O'Toole, the papers in the East gave out their opinion that he would be unable to hit the clever Eastern fighter and that any man who could do no better than get a decision over Monte Attell in twenty rounds was not the man to beat O'Toole. Well, I beat him with ease," is the little fellow's satisfied way of referring to that battle.

Neil, in his former fights in San Francisco, has almost always been called upon to give away weight and often the opponents have outweighed him from five to ten pounds, which is a great handicap to overcome. Now he will meet a man who will not outweigh him more than two or three pounds, and who is about evenly matched with the Californian in every branch of the game, that is, if his training can be counted for anything. Opinion seems to differ regarding the outcome by those men who have boxed with the new-comer. Al Emlack, who boxed with the little fellow Saturday and Sunday afternoon, is of the opinion that Neil will win.

Eddie Hanlon has boxed several times with Moran and has also fought Neil and watched him in most of his contests, and he is of the opinion that Moran will prove too fast for Neil.

Neil figures that he will beat Moran because he will be able to out-punch and out-shug him, while the Englishman is not clever enough to stay away from him. Moran is not quite so modest regarding the reasons he expects to win. He gives it out as his opinion that he is a better man than Neil at any of the tricks of the game. He expects to out-fight Neil and out-box him as well. The opinion of the men who bet on past performances is to the effect that Moran, to beat a fighter like Neil, should have easily beaten Monte Attell, who it is agreed Neil would have been able to beat with ease. Again the Moran people come back with the argument that Frankie, in allowing Harry Baker to stay twenty rounds with him at Los Angeles, showed that he was not the fighter he was a few years ago, and that he will have all he can do to hit the clever little fellow from across the water.

At any rate the contest bids fair to being a very close one and a large house will be on hand, and if Owen Moran proves to be a formidable opponent, as it is expected, the average follower of the game will be satisfied. Tickets are on sale for the contest at Devereaux's cigar store on Broadway, between Tenth and Eleventh streets.

OWAN MORAN AND FRANKIE NEIL, THE STAR FEATHER-WEIGHTS WHO WILL FIGHT AT DREAMLAND TOMORROW NIGHT.

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

That Heiner Heilmuller is destined for big league company is now a foregone conclusion. Connie Mack, the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, has been looking Heilmuller over with an artistic baseball eye, and he finds that Heilmuller measures up to his standards.

If Connie Mack secures Heilmuller, and we hope he does, he will have gotten the very best natural ball player in the Pacific Coast League. Heilmuller is a big and powerful fellow, and he can play great baseball when he wants to. Heilmuller is quite a full liver and is not at all ways in the mood to play baseball, but we take it that if he were to go to some of the Eastern cities, where he would not find so much congenial company, that he would make a great ball player. He has the material in him of which great players are made. Heilmuller's playing in this league has been sensational at times. He has the ability, and Connie Mack is the man that could develop the big Teuton into a first-class ball player.

The Frankie Neil-Owen Moran fight is attracting considerable attention, and while there is no title involved in their coming battle, the men are of such caliber as to attract the attention of sporting men throughout the country.

All the experts who have looked the two boys over lean to the opinion that Neil will conquer the sturdy Britisher with the Irish name.

The writer feels Neil to be the best boy of his weight and inches in the world. Neil, of course, suffered defeat at the hands of Abe Attell and Harry Baker. Neither of those boys would give Frankie a return match, as he shows a high respect they hold the little fellow in.

Neil so we are assured by honest men who saw him fight Baker, beat that scrapper, but the referee, one of Tom McCarey's pets, gave the decision to Baker.

Attell, we are told, had none the better of the going with Neil, but being a big favorite in Los Angeles, the referee, with an eye to pleasing the house, gave the decision to Attell.

Our guess badly.

In the six-ounce gloves required by the law at Los Angeles do not frighten Abe Attell, they should not embarrass any of the other ring stars.

The walk-around system of betting that prevails at Benning's does not interfere with the walk-home system after the races.

James R. Keene picked up a small trifle like $40,000 on racing this season. It's easy to make money in racing if you have a good stable, but before you try it be sure that your stable is good.

In the East they are talking of a baseball trust. Fray, tell us what it is now.

If you don't think these certificates are good, just try them at the race track.

One cheering fact is that no one has discovered any microbes on the Clearing House certificates.

Harry Froelich, the bookmaker, collected $120 for the Brandt benefit at the West Oakland Club last Tuesday night. That was a good start, and we hope that the good work will continue.

Southern Varsity To Play Stanford

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 21.—Coach Holmes of the University of Southern California was on the campus yesterday seeking to secure a contract with Manager Knapp of Stanford to insure athletic relations between the two universities in tennis, track and baseball. It is his desire to make a three-year contract with the Stanford management, particularly in track, but also in the other branches of athletics if possible. Holmes desires to have two track meets with Stanford each spring, one down in Southern California and the other at Stanford. In the past few years Stanford has usually sent teams down to the southern part of the State and has competed sometimes with the University of Southern California and sometimes with Pomona College. However, Holmes wishes to establish permanent relations with Stanford, which was to have been the star attraction of last night's session at the Stanford Athletic Club, was prevented by a police raid.

The club officials had secured a temporary court injunction restraining the police from interfering, but the police refused to pay no attention to injunctions in such cases. The raid took place when Tommy West, former welter-weight champion of California, and Joe Black were engaged in the first preliminary bout. The police arrested West, one of the seconds and the club manager, Buckley, who was in the ring acting as referee. Over 1000 spectators were present and police reserves had to be called to clear them out of the house.

Keyes-Murphy Go Stopped by Police

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The fight between Bert Keyes and Martin Murphy, which was to have been the star attraction of last night's session at the Stanford Athletic Club, was prevented by a police raid.

Richard Croker Has New Trainer

DUBLIN, Nov. 21.—Allen, the trainer, has been given control of Richard Croker's stable replacing McCabe. The jockeys also have been changed. Hunter being substituted for Bullock. These changes are understood to be due to Mr. Croker's dissatisfaction with the management of Croker's stable, and especially in his race for the Atlantic Stakes, and the failure of Rhodora in the contest for the Middle Park plate.

Scaler-Powell Fight Is Off

VALLERJO, Nov. 21.—Because they could not come to an agreement over the weight question, the bout between Kid Scaler and Lew Powell, set for the latter part of this month at the card for the Palm Athletic Club, has been called off.

Reliance Stag Is Big Success

The Reliance Athletic Club succeeded in its royalety entertaining a large number of its members and friends at a stag given last evening under the direction of Emil Fritsch. The affair was in the nature of a vaudeville show with excellent music furnished by St. Elmo Powell orchestra, and liquid refreshments during intermission.

Swanberg Is Great Runner

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Mail advices from Sweden record some wonderful running by John Swanberg, the Swedish champion, who finished second in both the five-mile run and Marathon race at Athens last year. In a match race at Stockholm against John Duncan, the four-mile champion of England, Swanberg ran five miles in 24 minutes 4-5 seconds, beating Duncan by nearly an eighth of a mile. He led from the start, passing the first mile in 4:11-2-5. He reached the second mile post 4 minutes and 43-2-5 seconds later, or 8:25 for the first two miles. This is nearly three seconds faster than the American two-mile record, 9:27-4-5, by Alex Grant.

Harry Cline Plays Great Billiards

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.—By counting forty-four points in forty minutes Harry Cline of Philadelphia won the fastest billiards tournament. His opponent was Joseph Capron of Salt, Canada. Cline won the game, 50 to 54. His high run was four and he averaged 77. John Horgan of Elmira, N. Y., defeated John F. Daly of New York City, 50 to 45.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—Andrew Carnegie has started out to eliminate the football game from the list of sports.

Tribunes to Play Berkeley Printers

Next Sunday morning at 10:30, on the Oakland Tribune grounds, the OAKLAND TRIBUNE ball team and the Berkeley Printers men are to play what should be one of the closest and most interesting amateur baseball games played this season. The game will be played for the benefit of the family of Alfred Holmes, a Berkeley printer, who is incapacitated, perhaps for life, from earning a living for his wife and two children.

Is There Really a Heavy Champ?

Controversy the general acceptance of a world's heavyweight championship title as vested at present in Tommy Burns because of his defeat of Bill Squires, heavyweight champion of Australia, and previously claimed by James J. Jeffries, the fighting American only. His facts are cited that no such title validly exists. To hold a clear and undisputed title as the best pugilist in the English-speaking world a fighter must defeat the champions of countries wherein the sport exists.

Socks Seybold Makes New Kick

Seybold, the big right fielder for the Athletics, is blessed with a perfect digestion and an appetite that is always willing to get busy. It is said that the ostrich has nothing on Socks in the digestion way. Consequently he can feed at the quick lunch counters along the train route and never suffer through the deal. This statement, taken in conjunction with the stuff that is ladled out by the vendors who run lunch shops at the Athletics, may seem marvelous, but it is nevertheless true in the case of the Athletics' heavy hitting outfielder.

Johnson Will Not Fight Jim Barry

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 21.—Jack Johnson, the colored pugilist, turned down the offer of a fight with Jim Barry.

Star Players Will Retire

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—On Yale field on Saturday five of the twelve men who represented Princeton played their last game for old Nassau. At Soldiers' field next Saturday more from the Crimson and Blue teams make their last appearance on the field. Eight of these are Yale men, and six are from Harvard's team. It happens that of the eighteen men who thus pass out of the great college game, nearly all are star players, so that there will be a noticeable void in the ranks of the three big teams next year. Yale loses Bigelow, Tad Jones, Howard Jones, Alcott, Polge, Foster, O'Condon and Bomar. Harvard loses Captain Parker, Grant, Apoloni, Wardell, Starr and Newhall. Princeton's retiring squad includes McCormack, Harlan, Phillips, Wister and Brown, taking away from Captain Eddie Dillon everyone of the Tigers' stars.

Socks Seybold Makes New Kick

There is almost no betting on the probable outcome of the big game Saturday. Only a few bets have been registered at odds of 5 to 1 on Yale. The spirit of the Harvard undergraduates in rallying to the team in its last fight arouses general admiration, but even Harvard men apparently only hope to avoid a rout.

JOCKEY HORNER ARRIVES AT THE EMERYVILLE TRACK

Noted Rider Is Given Ovation by Devotees of the Racing Game---Turf Gossip.

BY LEE DEMIER.

Devotees of the sport of kings' found quality as well as quantity caroled on the racing menu which was served at Williams Park yesterday afternoon, and large crowd was on hand to do it justice. The piece of resistance which was the San Leandro handicap, attracted only four starters. Several new names were noticeable on the entry list all of which added fascination to the game.

The new California Jockey club stewards today issued a new rule changing a fee of $10 to owners for starting their horses led to the post. A Touhey, owner of Al Lindley, who was left on his last star because of his failure to reach the post before the barrier was sprung, was the first to take advantage of the new ruling.

The field which went to the post in the opener was the largest which has faced Starter Dever this season, and an unusually hot it was. After six minutes' delay, he sent them on their way. Progress getting the best of a straggling start, and with clear sailing all the way never headed. Capt. Bennett came with a rush and outgained Sam Mark for the place. Pontotoc, which was played as if the race was over, got caught in the bunch and could never get clear.

W. E. Lemmon's shift giving Pontotoc the odds on choice, was easily best of the bunch, which lined up in the second event and taking the lead from the release of the barrier, simply topped all the way. Al Alone was right on edge and in a struggle for the place defeated Jane Swift.

Harry Stover's speedy filly, Sevenfold, attempted to make a runaway race, but she was not quite up to the effort, and was compelled to succumb to Silver Stocking in the final furlong. The latter was the well backed choice and ran a perfect race from a bad beginning. Old San Nicholas making his first appearance after a long let-up, dropped into third position.

R. F. Carman scored his second victory of the day when his buy colt, Rifleman, finished home in the San Leandro handicap, the failure of the colt's jockey, Dick the Pessera colt, right to the front and simply galloped all the way, winning by seven lengths. Johnnie, who did his best and took place money from Janota the favorite.

Long Wolf was rated today and under "Cricket" Kelly's galloped ride got up in time to beat out the fast thing. Socks Seybold, who was at the end of the mile and one furlong. Serenity came from the clouds in the stretch and outgained Jane Swift for show honors.

In a fierce stretch drive F. Neugent got the closing race from Overlando. Early Swan and J. J. had to be content with the show.

Today's racing program is lacking in features as compared with the card of the past week, but several shifts performers will race in the different events, which will make up for the gutted variety. Some new Eastern cracks will also measure strides with local talent.

The betting at Williams Park would be more brisk if all of the pencilers would take clearing house notes for wagers. I noticed quite a number of bettors who tried to bet the wad and were refused yesterday.

R. F. Carman's colors were seen twice past the wire yesterday.

After distributing $5000 to the dear public, Bookmaker Bowman failed to make the weight yesterday.

Sevenfold came near being an ace-full.

San Nicholas was much interfered with during his journey.

Silver Stockings was heavily played by the fair sex.

Aunt Polly forgot her glasses.

Bookmaker "Devie" Andrews is taking a crack at them from the ground.

Jockey Radlike's performance on Pontotoc was noble.

MACCABEES ANNUAL BALL

The Oakland Tent, No. 17, and Oakland Elks, No. 14, Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees have chosen Friday evening, December 6, and Central Hall, 421 Twelfth street, as the time and place for their twelfth annual ball. Invitations have been issued to 2500 friends and the committee of arrangements reports that everything indicates that the large hall will be filled with merry dancers. Joseph P. McNamara, a Union orchestra has been secured to furnish the music.

The floor director and the reception and floor committees will be appointed and announced next Tuesday evening. Oakland Tent, No. 17, will give the second of a series of smokers which it has planned for the fall and winter months at Maccabees Temple, Eleventh and Clay streets, next Monday evening, November 25. A fine program of entertainment has been prepared and the committee in charge promises a lively time for all present.

TAKEN TO JAIL MENTALLY ILL

Individual Wandering on Race Grounds Says He Is "Book-maker at Night."

C Jackman was taken to the county jail by Deputy Marshal Clark of Emoryville last night and put up for the night. Clark found the man on the racetrack grounds acting in a demented manner, and when he was spoken to no answer could be got from him. All that he would say that he was a "book-maker at night." Today when Jackman was questioned he had very little to say. When asked to write his name he removed his hat carefully and from the inner band removed a thin slip of paper. On the back of this he wrote his name. The slip was examined and found to be a secret tip on the races for which Jackman had paid $5. It was in cipher but the key to it Jackman no longer had in his possession. He was eager to have the cipher returned to him although it was upon one of yesterday's races. When asked about it he replied vaguely that he supplied keys to the bookmakers. It is thought that the man has been playing the ponies and a streak of bad luck has reduced him to temporary insanity.

Jailer Pete White prides himself on reading secret codes and ciphers but this one of this morning was too much for him. All that could be gathered from him was that the tip was on yesterday's races. Jackman could not or would not tell from whom he had purchased the precious information.

HOLIDAYS HURT TAX PAYMENTS

James B. Barber Shows Collections Are Half Million Shy in This County.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21.—All the members of the Alameda county delegation in the legislature have received the following communication from Tax Collector Barber of that county, showing the relative amount of taxes collected one year ago and the amount collected up to the same time this year, the discrepancy against the latter indicating the effect of the special holidays during the continuance of which the collection of taxes has ceased.

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 18th, 1907.
Pursuant to our understanding of yesterday, I hereby transmit to you the following figures in reference to the collection of taxes.
Total amount charged for 1906 $3,009,708.28
Total amount charged for 1907 2,559,295.17
Amount collected Oct. 14 to Nov. 24, 1906 188,678.18
Amount collected Nov. 5th to Nov. 26th 1906 1,198,201.28
Total collection during first installment 406 $1,386,879.46
Amount collected Oct. 14 to Nov. 24, 1907 $1,386,734.09
Amount collected Nov. 4th to Nov. 16th, 1907 inc $180,454.18
Total amount collected to date 1907 $1,567,188.27
You will note that the total amount to be collected for 1907 is over half a million more than was the amount for 1906 so that in normal conditions our collections should be larger to that which were in 1906. Yours very truly
JAMES B. BARBER
Tax Collector

WILL SUSPEND CITY TAXES

City Attorney Says That if County and State Taxes Go Over None Will Be Collected.

A committee of the Real Estate Association waited upon City Attorney McElroy in reference to the payment of city taxes. The question is being constantly asked of the various real estate men whether or not city taxes will be called for on Monday, November 26, in case the Legislature suspends county and state taxes. Mr. McElroy advises the public that city taxes will be suspended if State and county taxes are suspended.

Mr. McElroy sent the following letter to C. E. Hodge & Co. giving of view on the subject.
In response to your inquiry as to whether or not in the event that the Legislature extends the time for payment of State and county taxes that the time for payment of the taxes of the city of Oakland are also extended will of that section 137 of the charter of the city of Oakland so provides.
Section 137 of the charter of the city of Oakland is so far as the same is applicable to the question asked by you is as follows:
"Except as in this article otherwise provided, the assessment of property tax in the city for municipal purposes, the equalization of assessments, and collection of taxes, and the sale of property for unpaid taxes, and the redemption of property sold for taxes, shall be made and had at the same time and manner and with like effect as now or may be hereafter provided by law for the assessment of property, equalization of assessments, levying and collection of taxes, and sale of property for unpaid taxes for State and county purposes, and redemption thereof, and all provisions of law applicable to such assessment, equalization, levying, collections, and sale for State and county purposes are hereby applied to and shall be the law governing such assessment, equalization, collection, and sale for municipal purposes." and the respective officers of the city shall have powers and perform the same powers and duties in all matters concerning revenue and taxation for municipal purposes as are by law conferred or imposed upon county officers in matters concerning revenue and taxation for State and county purposes.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS Cash Prizes for Best Letters

Have you ever written to Santa Claus and told him what presents you desired for Christmas, or have you written to him the thoughts that seem most important to you? THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE will give you the opportunity to write to Santa Claus, and will award the following prizes to those who write the best letters:

First Prize	$10.00
Second Prize	$7.50
Third Prize	$2.50
Fourth Prize	$1.00
Fifth Prize	$1.00
Sixth Prize	$1.00
Seventh Prize	$1.00

Read the following instructions and rules carefully, write your letter, and win a prize. The letters should contain not less than 150 words and must be composed entirely of words and sentences cut from advertisements appearing in THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE from Sunday, Nov. 17th, to Monday, Dec. 16th inclusive. The words and sentences must be arranged in logical order, and pasted on sheets of paper about the size of foolscap, using only one side of the paper. Pictures cut from advertisements may be used instead of words, where they express an idea just as well as words. The advertisements from which the words and sentences are cut must be sent in with the letters. All letters must reach THE TRIBUNE by Wednesday, Dec. 18th. The names of the prize winners will be published in the SUNDAY TRIBUNE, on Dec. 22nd, and the prizes sent in ample time for Christmas shopping.

Show Your Skill and Intelligence

You will find today's advertisements full of words and sentences for good letters. Be a Winner—Write Santa Claus A Letter Now. Address Letters to Santa Claus Editor, THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

LITTLE GIRL SUFFERED LONG
Then Great Remedy Cured Skin Disease Which Had Gained Powerful Foothold

The medical world and especially the cutaneous experts of the medical world are considerably stirred over the latest reports of the daughter of W. E. Koch, the real estate and insurance man of Huntington, Ind., who suffered for such a long time with what was looked upon as an incurable skin disease. Mr. Koch was referred by a friend to the wonderful Houdremedy D. D. Prescription which is a specific for eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, barba's itch and other diseases of the skin. Almost the first application on the little girl's delicate skin caused the itch to go away and her skin began to heal. Mr. Koch writes about the case says: "We have used D. D. Prescription and find it the best we ever tried for eczema. Our little girl was afflicted with this disease for seven years. We tried everything we ever heard of and nothing did her any good until we heard of your remedy. We used five bottles and it cured the child. That was eight years ago and the disease never has returned. I can recommend your D. D. highly to any one afflicted with eczema. D. D. Prescription is a purely vegetable external remedy that is applied directly to the terrible itching parts. It relieves instantly and almost immediately the signs of a cure are seen. A short use and the terrible itching scales fall off the skin and the inflammation goes away and soon it is white and healthy. This remedy follows the principles of the latest learned skin specialists that eczema is in the skin, not in the blood and consequently should be treated through the skin and not through the stomach. This remedy is on sale at any drug store.

HIDES FORGED CHECK IN QUID OF TOBACCO

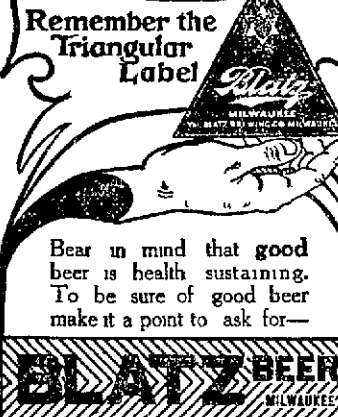

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—Edward Mann was arrested here charged with attempting to pass a forged check on a local merchant. When searched at the police station the check could not be found, until it dawned on Chief Reynolds that Mann seemed to have an unusually large chest of tobacco in his mouth. The prisoner was made to disgorge the "quid" and in it was found the check badly mutilated but still sufficiently intact to permit sending him to the penitentiary. Mann was recently released from the State penitentiary where he served a term of twenty months for embezzling $1200 from a local express company.

ARGENTINE FOREIGN TRADE

Consul General A. G. Snyder of Buenos Aires advises that figures just published gave the imports into the Argentine Republic for the first six months of 1907 as $130,561,685 gold, an increase of $13,053,304 gold over the same period of last year, while the exports were $18,434,453 an increase of $20,668,342. Imports from Africa, Chile, France, Italy, Spain, Holland and the United States decreased during this period while an increase was shown in those of Belgium, Brazil, Germany, Cuba, Uruguay and England. The value of Argentine exports sent to France was $24,077,779, England $20,386,587, Germany $22,727,505 and the United States $6,623,287 as stated in the published figures. The consular figures however show exports to the United States of $7,090,897 of Argentine goods during the six months in question.
